FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK

Pastor Ken Nelson
Senior Pastor

PastorKen@calvarylc.com

"Do your best to present yourself to God as one approved, a workman who does not need to be ashamed and who correctly handles the word of truth." II Timothy 2:15

"But you, keep your head in all situations, endure hardship, do the work of an evangelist, discharge all the duties of your ministry" II Timothy 4:5

This is my final installment in a seven part series of messages on the subject of discipleship. In John 8:31-32 Jesus said "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." Disciples are believers who "hold" to Jesus' teaching. I've suggested the following signs or "habits" based on a book entitled "The 7 Habits of Discipleship" by Pastor Rick Foss. One final time they are:

- Worship weekly
- Pray daily
- Read and study the bible regularly
- Seek to live your faith in daily life
- Seek the supporting relationship of other Christians
- Grow in giving toward the goal of tithing
- Learn to share faith with others

The seventh and final "habit" is "Learn to share faith with others". This is not unrelated to any of the others. In fact, none of these habits should be seen apart from the influence they have on one another. The foundation of discipleship in the Lutheran tradition is worship – everything begins with the church in worship – the praises of God are sung and the promises of God received by faith there. Worship is discipleship, for in it God's word proclaimed is then applied to daily life, our faith and sins are confessed, forgiveness received, prayers offered, faith through generosity shown and Christian friendship and support enjoyed. It's all in there.

And yet, each habit requires, like all habits, repetition. In that sense the seventh and final habit may be the hardest, because it takes us into the world and "out of the church." What we share with others in habits 1-6 is done in Christian

The Vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is: “Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ”

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

community. Sharing faith with others is, as Paul says in II Timothy 4:5, “the work of an evangelist.” And few of us see ourselves, naturally at least, as evangelists. Say that word and we think either of the giants of evangelism such as the late Rev. Billy Graham, or those menacing folks who show up at our door on Saturday mornings with suits on and a pamphlet in their hand.

But Paul is encouraging his protégé Timothy to take things in stride. First he tells him to learn the story of God’s amazing grace – the word of God. In II Timothy 3:16-17 he says “All Scripture is God breathed and is useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting and training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be thoroughly equipped for every good work.” Think back then to habit # 3 – the study of the word, as well as habit #1, the foundation, hearing it preached. One cannot share good news if one is not clear and convinced what that good news is. Yes, we have to feel the experience of God to share our faith, but we also need to know the word of God, what it says and what it doesn’t say, so that we can do things like teach, rebuke, correct and train.

That is why I am thankful for the emphasis the NALC is placing on what it calls “Life to Life Discipleship”. Luther said discipleship is about “movement” - it is not so much “being” as “becoming” what God intends us to be. And that is why our church body, as committed as it is to the centrality of worship, is also committed to helping congregations and its members “do the work of an evangelist” by moving from being a Christian of the church to being a Christian in the world.

To help us accomplish this, the NALC is partnering with an organization called the Navigators to help congregations “move” from the first habit of the disciple (worship) to the final habit of the disciple: Being ready to share our faith in a humble, yet convincing way so that others may come to know Christ as we do. Beginning in 2019, the Navigators organization will become a partner of Calvary Lutheran Church (for up to three years) by providing a trained representative from that organization to work primarily with me in the first year to show me how the movement from worshipping faith to confident sharing of faith can happen.

I, in turn, will prayerfully select other leaders, and do with them what my Navigator coach does with me. All the habits of discipleship will be emphasized, but the goal is for us to be equipped to not only welcome those who come to our congregation as visitors, but to be ready when the Spirit of God prompts us and has prepared someone’s heart, to gain a hearing for the gospel of Jesus. We want to “correctly handle the word of truth”, and Jesus has commissioned all as evangelists. The work of the disciple is to win a hearing for the gospel by our lives, and be ready to invite someone into the same wonderful way of life.

In gratitude for your faith,
Pastor Ken Nelson

Music Ministry

Dear People of Calvary,

I begin this article by quoting a colleague of mine who was interviewed about being a bit player in a stage performance: "There ain't much you can say about my character – he's just glad to be in the show, if ya catch my meaning." After my own physiological events of the last few months, I, too, am just glad to be in the show. To all of you who offered prayers, cards, and words of encouragement (and a bouquet of cookies) during my surgery and (continued) recovery, Laura and I thank you most gratefully.

I offer you a few music events to ponder and attend over the next few weeks. First, the Christmas and Holiday Sing-along on December 2nd at 4:00pm. If you did not attend the 2016 Singalong, it's a fun occasion. You get to sing great carols of Christmas, as well as secular holiday favorites. It's a great way to get in gear for the season. Refreshments will be served.

Calvary's own Celebration Ringers and Alleluia Choir present musical offerings for Christmas Eve at 10:00 pm. Come celebrate the birth of the Christ Child with stirring sounds. If you find the above two particularly stirring, there is always room for more folks in Celebration Ringers and Alleluia Choir. These fine groups begin rehearsing for the spring on January 8th at 6:00 p.m. (Ringers) and January 9th at 7:00 p.m. (Choir).

Wishing you a holy Advent and blessed Christmas,

Gene Traas, Director of Music

MONDAY MORNING MOVIE – DECEMBER 2018

Here's a film for everyone!! On Monday, December 10 at 9 a.m. in Room 110 (Media Room), all of Calvary is invited to a screening of "A Christmas Carol" starring George C. Scott as Ebenezer Scrooge.

You may recall watching this version on TV in 1984. Yes, it was that long ago! The film has aged well, and you'll be uplifted and filled with the true meaning of Christmas, to say nothing of a few Christmas cookies to boot. Please come – and bring a friend!

S.A.L.T. CHRISTMAS EVENT THURSDAY, DECEMBER 6, 11 A.M.

We'll gather at 11 a.m. in Fellowship Hall for some carol singing, fun quizzes (with prizes), time to check out Calvary's display of nativity sets, and a light lunch. (If you can bring a dozen cookies or other treats to share for dessert, please indicate that on the sign-up sheet in the Narthex.)

At 12:45 p.m., we'll carpool to Holy Cross Lutheran Church on Pilgrim Road, just north of Good Hope Road in Menomonee Falls. There we'll listen to a brief talk about the history of their nativity collection (there will be chairs!) and take some time to get a closer look at the 500+ sets in the display area. (Visit their website at <https://holycrosslutheran.org/nativity-collection/joy-to-the-world-nativity-collection> to see photos of this incredible display.)

We'll be back at Calvary by 3 p.m. If you can drive, please note that on the sign-up with the number of passengers you can accommodate. Please come to either or both parts of this event – you'll have a great time either way! Questions? Contact Grace Gunnlaugsson (gracemg@mac.com) (262-369-3910)

MONDAY BOOK CLUB—MONDAY, JANUARY 14 AT 1 P.M.

We'll begin the new year by reading Hillbilly Elegy by J. D. Vance. We welcome the women and men of Calvary to join us for discussion of a book that has received these reviews among many:

Hillbilly Elegy is a passionate and personal analysis of a culture in crisis—that of white working-class Americans. The disintegration of this group, a process that has been slowly occurring now for more than forty years, has been reported with growing frequency and alarm, but has never before been written about as searingly from the inside. J. D. Vance tells the true story of what a social, regional, and class decline feels like when you were born with it hung around your neck. . . .

A deeply moving memoir, with its share of humor and vividly colorful figures, Hillbilly Elegy is the story of how upward mobility really feels. And it is an urgent and troubling meditation on the loss of the American dream for a large segment of this country.

Join us for a discussion of this important book on Monday, January 14 at 1:00 pm in Room 110 (Media Room).

(The Bridges Library System in Waukesha County has multiple copies available at the time of this writing.)

- ✝ The church office will be closed on December 25, 2018 and January 1, 2019.
- ✝ As we approach the end of 2018, we ask you to please look carefully and prayerfully at your financial giving for the year.
- ✝ The financial books close on Monday, December 31, 2018. To ensure proper credit for 2018 tax purposes, please have your contributions in the church office by noon on the 31st. Contributions received after the 31st will not be credited to your 2018 giving. Thank you for your continued support of the many ministries of Calvary.
- ✝ Please remember to notify the church office (in writing or by phone) with a change to your address/phone number/e-mail.

Rev. Nate Liedtke attended Wartburg Theological Seminary in Dubuque, Iowa. The time in seminary is a long and costly one, filled with several moves from school out to a year of internship, then back to school. The scholarship gift through Calvary Lutheran's Endowment Fund helped him avoid having to take out a loan to purchase various needed items for school.

Rev. Liedtke is the Senior Pastor at New Life Lutheran Church, a strong and growing congregation in Norwalk, Iowa. He and his wife Kerrie have two children, Ben and Katie.

SALE OF CEMETERY CRYPT WILL BENEFIT CALVARY'S ENDOWMENT FUND

Are you, or someone you know, in need of a future burial site? If so, this might be of interest to you, as well as being a benefit to Calvary's Endowment Fund. Jim and Nancy Marsho, members of Calvary who now live in Door County, are interested in selling an above ground crypt for two located in a Cryptorium at Wisconsin Memorial Park.

Because of their move, their own burial plans have changed. They have owned the crypt since 1994 and are looking to sell it for their original purchase price of $4,500 (or best offer), plus any transfer fee. Similar crypts today are selling for $15,900.

Jim and Nancy will donate all of the proceeds of the sale to Calvary's Endowment Fund. If you are interested, please contact Jim and Nancy at 262.227.6969 or email jmarsho@uwm.edu.

Mission of the Month

DECEMBER MISSION OF THE MONTH: NALC SEMINARY FUND

This month Calvary's mission focus is in support of seminaries and seminarians. Donations will be used to support the two components of one NALC Seminary system: the Seminary Center at Trinity School for Ministry in Ambridge, Pa., and Houses of Studies located within NALC Mission Districts.

The primary purpose of the Seminary is to educate and produce orthodox, confessing, evangelical Lutheran Pastors for NALC churches. Financial support enables us to continue to train such Pastors and send them out to do the work of our Lord. The NALC recently sent seven graduates out to begin their work. Financial support is also required to support students with funds for scholarships to help them in their quest for such an education without being burdened by excessive debt.

Local congregations like Calvary are the source of future seminarians. We need to identify, encourage and support prospective seminarians as they consider their educational choices. Calvary's Endowment Fund is poised to do just that. Up to one-third of its annual disburseable funds are available for tuition support of Calvary members who attend seminary.

Calvary supports the NALC Seminary with an appeal each December. The Endowment Fund sends a gift to the Seminary to bolster our Mission of the Month offerings and to further their important work to send out future shepherds of the flock.

Please join us in sending our Christmas gift to the NALC Seminary as our response to the blessings we have received. Use your weekly offering envelopes, white pew envelopes, or give online. Checks should be made out to Calvary Lutheran Church and note: December Mission of the Month.
