“The Spirit gives life, the flesh counts for nothing.
The words I have spoken to you are spirit and they are life.”
John 6:63

Why do you give? When you hear of a need in some part of the world, and you are persuaded to give, what was the “deciding factor?” Do you give because you are persuaded by a photo, or the “pitch” of a telephone solicitor? All of these things have prompted me to give – though I do also think about the work the organization does and I even try to imagine the feelings of the people the organization helps, as though I were presenting a gift directly to them. Nevertheless I am not sure this is the approach we ought to adopt in our giving. We should not give simply because we are asked or because we may derive satisfaction in knowing we are helping in some way....we should give because we are convinced that no other course of action is possible for us.

Let me explain. In the passage from John that I have cited above, Jesus has just finished saying that he is the Messiah of Israel, their long awaited Savior (John 6:52-62). He called himself in this lesson “the Bread of Life”, and the “True Bread from Heaven”. He said that his body is true food and his blood is true drink. As you might expect, this left not a few folks perplexed and some just gave up on him and went away. What he was saying “made no sense”, it was not “reasonable”. Many said “this is a hard teaching...who can accept it”.

Only those convinced Jesus was speaking to their hearts as God's Son could and eventually did accept it. Appeals to their mind would not do - you can't convince someone to believe this sort of thing. What has this to do with giving? Just this; appeals to our mind can elicit a response and often do awaken in us desire to contribute and make a difference in some way. In our congregation, we appeal to

OUR MISSION & VISION:

The vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is:
"Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ"

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

you to give so that our administrative, pastoral and facility needs are met and our "mission of the month" partners who are involved with evangelism, bible translation, alleviating the causes of poverty, and supporting seminary education are supported.

But Christian stewards recognize that there is more to their contributions than sustaining important work – they recognize that intentional, joyful, generous, and yes even sacrificial giving and living is how our lives were intended to be lived – it is what we were created for. It is evidence that "the Spirit that gives life" is in us. These words that Jesus speaks which otherwise "make no sense" provide proper perspective about giving. They help us see giving as 'the only way possible for us to live'. Christians can and should be prudent in matters finance and over household budgets and we ought to make careful decisions with regard to church budgets too. But one can't be Christian and not be generous. The life the Spirit gives is gratitude coupled with generosity. It's just who we are.

Please remember two upcoming important events in our congregation. On November 5th our Endowment Committee has planned an information session to inform and invite you to consider supporting the work it supports in and through our congregation. The event will take place from 2:00 – 3:30 on that day. The following Sunday, November 12th, immediately after our 9:00 AM worship, the Stewardship Committee will host a brunch at which we will speak about our church's vision, goals, and present needs and invite you to make a pledge for the upcoming year.

Before those two events we ask that you pray. Ask the Lord to speak into your heart about your part in our work. Pray that we will all see and perceive nothing so much as the reaching, teaching, baptizing and blessing work that the Spirit of Life - Jesus Christ has entrusted to us.

Because of a cross,
Pastor Ken Nelson

Reformation 500th Anniversary Celebration

Join us in worship at 5 p.m. on Saturday, November 4 or at 9 a.m. on Sunday, November 5 as Calvary celebrates 500 years since Martin Luther published his 95 these teaching us that salvation and, consequently, eternal life are not earned by good deeds but are received only as the free gift of God's grace through the believer's faith in Jesus Christ as redeemer from sin.

At this momentous occasion, we will also be presenting Bibles to our third graders: Kyle Gall, Addie Meyer, and Ellie Sayas; and our three year olds: Emily Huettl, Olivia Schlieve, and Bode Zipp.

Duty and Delight – Living and Giving Faithfully

Marty Haugen, in his liturgy “Now the Feast and Celebration,” begins the preface to the Holy Communion with, “It is our duty and delight that we should everywhere and always offer thanks and praise to you, O God, through Jesus Christ....”

Duty and delight are a wonderful combination. In Romans 15:27, Paul wrote, “For they were pleased to do it, and indeed they owe it to them.” One of my seminary professors used to say, “A text without a context is a pretext,” and he was certainly correct. Paul is talking about going on to Spain by way of Rome, but first he’s going to carry some relief for the saints to Jerusalem. Sharing that offering brought those who gave it a sense of both duty and delight.

“They were pleased to do it...,” suggests delight; “and indeed they owe it to them” means they realized it was their duty. For the mature Christian, the offering is an act of worship. The mystic Evelyn Underhill wrote that the primary purpose of worship is to adore God. Our worship through the offering should always be our delightful duty — indeed, our adoration of God. Women's Ministry Book Group - November 13, 1 p.m.

The full title of our book selection for this month is Travels with Charley in Search of America by John Steinbeck.

(From the back cover) –

“In September 1960, John Steinbeck and his poodle, Charley, embarked on a journey across America. A picaresque tale, this chronicle of their trip meanders along scenic back roads and speeds along anonymous superhighways, moving from small towns to growing cities to glorious wilderness oases. Travels with Charley is animated by Steinbeck's attention to the specific details of the natural world and his sense of how the lives of people are intimately connected to the rhythms of nature - to weather, geography, the cycles of the seasons. His keen ear for the transactions among people is evident, too, as he records the interests and obsessions that preoccupy the Americans he encounters along the way.”

The New York Times Book Review said this about this classic:

“Pure delight, a pungent potpourri of places and people interspersed with bittersweet essays on everything from the emotional difficulties of growing old to the reasons why giant sequoias arouse such awe.”

It will be interesting to see how things have changed – or not changed over the past 50+ years.

There are numerous copies within the Bridges library system in Waukesha County and through the Milwaukee County library system as well. Request a copy from your local library.

Monday Morning Movie - November 20, 9 a.m.

“Quartet”

Here's the summary of our next Monday morning movie at 9 am Monday, November 20 in the media room (Room 110).

Beecham House is abuzz. The rumor circling the halls is that the home for retired musicians is soon to play host to a new resident. Word is, it's a star. For Reginald Paget (Tom Courtenay), Wilfred Bond (Billy Connolly) and Cecily Robson (Pauline Collins) this sort of talk is par for the course at the gossipy home. But they're in for a special shock when the new arrival turns out to be none other than their former singing partner, Jean Horton (Maggie Smith). Her subsequent career as a star soloist, and the ego that accompanied it, split up their long friendship and ended her marriage to Reggie, who takes the news of her arrival particularly hard. Can the passage of time heal old wounds? And will the famous quartet be able to patch up their differences in time for Beecham House's gala concert?

Find out on November 20 – bring a friend!

Women's Bible Study

Discerning the Voice of God

One of the first steps in learning to distinguish God's voice from all the other voices in our lives is to learn to listen. Priscilla Shirer is the author of our amazing study which continues on:

Tuesday from 10:30 am – noon

We always meet in the media room (Room 110). Mark your calendars for these sessions:

November Mission of the Month: Samaritan's Purse

The story of the Good Samaritan (Luke 10:30-37) gives a clear picture of God's desire for us to help those in desperate need wherever we find them. After describing how the Samaritan rescued a hurting man whom others had passed by, Jesus told His hearers, "Go and do likewise." For over 40 years, Samaritan's Purse has done our utmost to follow Christ's command by going to the aid of the world's poor, sick, and suffering. We are an effective means of reaching hurting people in countries around the world with food, medicine, and other assistance in the Name of Jesus Christ. This, in turn, earns us a hearing for the Gospel, the Good News of eternal life through Jesus Christ.

As our teams work in crisis areas of the world, people often ask, "Why did you come?" The answer is always the same: "We have come to help you in the Name of the Lord Jesus Christ." Our ministry is all about Jesus—first, last, and always. As the Apostle Paul said, "For we do not preach ourselves, but Jesus Christ as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake" (2 Corinthians 4:5, NIV).

Calvary also supports the Operation Christmas Child which blesses children around the world with gift-filled shoeboxes that become opportunities to share the Good News of Jesus Christ. Support the packing party on November 11 at 10 a.m. with your donations of gifts, shipping fee and/or help packing. Support to Samaritan's Purse most needed areas include personnel, materials, supporting services, buildings, and equipment—to fulfill our mission of relief and evangelism worldwide.

Use your weekly offering envelopes or a white pew envelope to contribute and note "Mission of the Month" on your check and/or envelope.

A Prayer of Thanksgiving

Dear Father,

We thank You for all the wonderful gifts
You share with us.

We thank You for the food we eat, for the beauty of the seasons and for the wonders of Your creation.

We thank You for our families and friends and ask You to bless and watch over us.

Most of all Lord, we thank You for sharing Your life with us, and for the gift of Your Son, Jesus Christ.

Amen.
