"Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers." Galatians 6:10

In the letter to the Galatians, the Apostle Paul primarily addresses a church straying from some of the more important matters of faith he had proclaimed to them, confusing Jewish and Christian rituals and teachings, which is not surprising given Christianity was in its very infancy. Most of his letter concerns these matters. But the last two chapters are different, and they adopt a more positive tone, addressing Christian life – including the famous "fruits of the Spirit" in Galatians 5:22-23. Galatians 6 is an appeal to the Christians in Galatia to do good - to everyone of course - but especially to each another. This isn't a particularly novel teaching. But there had been disputes in the church in Galatia which Paul addressed earlier in the letter that had led to some strained relations. He wanted the church to now strive for unity in the faith, and towards one another.

I cite this passage because I am grateful for a new development at Calvary Lutheran Church. At our last Council meeting, members voted to invite another congregation – Holy Cross Anglican – to begin using our building for their worship services and education time on Sunday mornings. Beginning on Sunday, April 28th, the members of Holy Cross will worship at 11:15 a.m. in our sanctuary, and have their Sunday School at 10:30 a.m. in our education wing.

The Pastor (Rector) of Holy Cross, Patrick Malone, approached us last December with the request of his congregation. Formerly "St. Edmonds Episcopal Church" of Elm Grove, the congregation was forced to surrender their facility when it voted to leave the Episcopal Church USA several years ago – a difficult process that we at Calvary are all too familiar with. But unlike Calvary who maintained its property, that congregation lost theirs. They have gathered under their new

The Vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is: “Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ”

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

name at various locations since, most recently at Carroll University in Waukesha.

But that arrangement was growing difficult, so Father Malone reached out to us. I was glad to bring the request to the Council, who were receptive. All the more so, because Holy Cross is now part of a church body known as the Anglican Church North America (ACNA). That church body has a seminary in Ambridge, Pennsylvania, which several years ago welcomed the new North American Lutheran Seminary (NALS) and what, at the time, was just a handful of Lutheran professors and seminarians to its facility, making it much easier for the NALC to have a seminary, even “borrowing” some Anglican faculty to help train future NALC pastors.

So I return to Galatians – ‘let us do good to all people, especially those who belong to the household of believers.’ The ACNA did so to our young church body, the NALC. And now Calvary has this wonderful opportunity to do good toward a member of that church body.

This is as it should be. This is the church at its best. And this will not simply be a one way conveyance of goodwill. Holy Cross has fine leadership, and they are eager to bless our congregation. They long to seek opportunities for joint worship with us – something the leadership of the NALC encourages. They long to participate with our wonderful Vacation Bible School, something their size (about 50-60 members) is difficult for them.

Holy Cross will occupy one or two of our Sunday School classrooms each week – ones currently not in use by our Sunday School — for both a children’s and adult class. They will worship in their tradition each Sunday, but the Anglican one is not so distant from ours, making the possibility of learning about one another, and joint worship, particularly on festivals such as Christmas and Easter, an intriguing possibility.

This arrangement will be new for us, just as for them. It may, from time to time, call upon us to make use of those “fruits of the Spirit” Galatians lists...love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.” We are not merging congregations, but sharing space. That may call upon us at Calvary to make some allowances for our friends, as our particular needs for space may do the same for Holy Cross on occasion. But recalling that our goals are the same - the worship of and service to the Servant King, Jesus Christ - those fruits of that King’s Spirit which unites us in faith will surely be there for us.

I am glad to be able to make this announcement to you. In just over a month’s time, you will see new faces entering our fine facility – but as Calvary does so well with all our guests, I long to give the members of Holy Cross a genuine Christian welcome. I know you’ll be eager to as well.

Because of a cross,

Ken Nelson
Pastor

Mission of the Month/Community Outreach

Mission of the Month: COMPASSION INTERNATIONAL

Compassion International exists as an advocate for children, to release them from their spiritual, economic, social and physical poverty and enable them to become responsible and fulfilled Christian adults.

This is done in a variety of ways. For the Calvary Congregation, we are most familiar with their Water of Life and Child Sponsorship programs.

In prior years, our focus has been on the Water of Life program to purchase water filtration systems. Thankfully, this program has been so successful that there is a limit of how many new systems they need each year. The Water of Life program is part of the larger “WaSH” program which stands for Water Sanitation and Hygiene. Donations directed to WaSH might be used for Water of Life but if all the units have already been acquired for the year, the funds would be used for wells, filtration systems, water storage or sanitation facilities.

The focus of the Water Sanitation and Hygiene initiative (WaSH) is to ensure that no Compassion-assisted child has to drink contaminated water or use unsafe sanitation facilities. Compassion provides the resources and infrastructure that help protect each child's health as they make their journey out of extreme poverty.

Safe-water Infrastructure

Children who have access to safe water are protected from waterborne diseases and are more likely to succeed in school. A nearby safe water source also helps to ensure girls get an education instead of spending hours each day collecting water for their family.

Proper Sanitation

Providing adequate toilets or latrines prevents open defecation, which leads to the rapid spread of disease through communities and puts children in physical danger. Combined with hand-washing facilities, latrines not only protect children's health but foster dignity and self-respect.

Hygiene Education

Compassion provides personal hygiene kits and hygiene education so children can form good habits that will safeguard their health for a lifetime. From basic hand-washing to dental hygiene, Compassion-assisted children learn to care for themselves and lead by example.

Every $1 invested in Water and Sanitation Priority Initiative creates a $4 return because whole communities spend less on healthcare and more on education and in the local economy.

The Most Popular Interventions include:

- Drilling wells
- Facilitating waste collection and management
- Providing water filtration systems
- Installing rainwater harvesting systems
- Building water storage and pumping systems

- Providing hygiene education
- Building septic systems
- Training community members on equipment maintenance
- Constructing toilets and washrooms

In fiscal years 2015-18, Compassion's clean water initiatives impacted more than 170,000 Compassion children and their families through the:

- Installation of 8,449 toilets, 874 new water-access points near children's homes and more than 276 hand-washing stations at Compassion church partners.
- Provision of safe water through more than 159 new borehole wells, large water-storage tanks or large-scale water purification systems;
- Distribution of more than 20,400 in-home water filtration systems in 17 countries where Compassion works

To support the Water and Sanitation Initiative, use your weekly offering envelopes, white envelopes in the pew back or give online. Checks should be made out to Calvary Lutheran Church and note April Mission of the Month.

April Food Sunday

JUICES Juice (in all forms) is something that goes very quickly in the food pantry and doesn't get donated very often. Please drop your juice donations into our Food Pantry box located in the back hallway towards the choir room.

If you prefer to make a monetary contribution, please mark your envelope or check with the notation "Food Pantry". Your continued support is greatly appreciated - thank you!

Thank you to everyone who helped plan the recent Health and Safety Fair!

There were many opportunities to learn about health and safety topics of interest to all.

Calvary's Emergency Preparedness Plan was presented; blood pressure was checked, CPR was practiced, healthy oral care was shared and information about our AED unit was available. Additionally, members of the Brookfield Fire Department were also on hand to talk about fire safety and show us their emergency vehicles.

Are you or someone you know experiencing grief, divorce, hospitalization, disability, loneliness, job loss, or other life difficulties? Stephen Ministers are members of our congregation who receive special training to provide one-on-one Christian care. The care you'll receive is confidential and free, just like Jesus' love.

If you or someone you know is interested in having a Stephen Minister, please contact Scott or Peggy Langelin 262-853-0018 or splangelin@yahoo.com.

MONDAY MORNING MOVIE APRIL 15 AT 9:00 A.M.

Escape from the last vestiges of winter and income tax day on Monday, April 15 at 9 am in the media room (Room 110) for this oldie but goodie from the 1970's.

Robby Benson and Lynn-Holly Johnson star in this classic story of love triumphing over tragedy.

“Alexis Winston (Lynn-Holly Johnson) is a young girl who dreams of becoming a champion figure skater. One night, while practicing, Alexis suffers a terrible accident that takes her sight and threatens to destroy her dreams. In the midst of feeling sorry for herself she falls in love with a handsome young man named Nick (Robbie Benson) who (with help from her family) helps her to realize that she can still fulfill her dreams.”

Wonderful music and beautiful ice skating!

WOMEN'S MINISTRY MONDAY BOOK CLUB MONDAY, APRIL 8 AT 1 P.M.

As we bid goodbye to winter, we take one more glimpse at it as we read Maeve Binchy's final novel, A Week in Winter.

Stoneybridge is a small town on the west coast of Ireland where all the families know each other. When Chicky Starr decides to take an old, decaying mansion set high on the cliffs overlooking the windswept Atlantic Ocean and turn it into a restful place for a holiday by the sea, everyone thinks she is crazy. Helped by Rigger (a bad boy turned good who is handy around the house) and Orla, her niece (a whiz at business), Stone House is finally ready to welcome its first guests to the big warm kitchen, log fires, and understated elegant bedrooms. Laugh and cry with this unlikely group as they share their secrets and—maybe—even see some of their dreams come true. Full of Maeve's trademark warmth and humor, once again, she embraces us with her grand storytelling.

Come to the media room (Room 110) at 1:00 pm on Monday, April 8 for a final farewell to winter and a good discussion of a delightful book. Bring a friend!

Thank you to all who cooked,
served, cleaned and ate!

LET'S GET AWAY FROM IT ALL . . .
TO TANZANIA!

Calvary's SALT group (Senior Adults Living Triumphantly), plus a few friends, were treated to some traditional Tanzanian snacks and Chai made by Marcella in addition to a light lunch in our Fellowship Hall on March 7th.

The hall was transformed into a room bursting with the bright colors and bold patterns of East Africa. Pastor Ken wore a beautiful beaded cross made in Tanzania, and Marcella modelled a colorful patterned traditional Tanzanian dress. Between their attire, the food, and the array of photos, baskets, etc. displayed on all the tables, the stage was set for the feature program, “

Marcella and Pastor Ken led us in singing in Swahili (!) and gave us the fascinating background of how and why they, having been married only a couple of years, wound up in Tanzania for five years! We saw a series of photos of where they lived and worked as missionaries to new ELCA congregations throughout the country. We could see God's hand at work. And that experience led to Ken being called to be Pastor Ken and eventually landing in Brookfield, Wisconsin at Calvary! Thanks be to God for the marvelous ways He works!

PASTOR KEN'S WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY AT 12:30 P.M. NEW SERIES CONTINUES ....

In 2010, the North American Lutheran Church was formed, and in its Confession of Faith is included a "Common Confession", first adopted by the Lutheran Coalition for Renewal (CORE) in 2005. That Common Confession has seven parts and they are:

- The Lord Jesus Christ
- The Gospel of Salvation
- The Authority of Scripture
- A Common Confession of Faith (pertaining to the Lutheran Confessions and other church bodies)
- The Priesthood of All Believers
- Marriage and Family
- The Mission and Ministry of the Congregation.

Sola Publishing, the official publishing house of the NALC, has produced a study guide that will help participants understand the origin and implication of these seven statements. This study resource will form the basis of our sessions and the study guide is available for purchase (not required to participate ) for $10, payable to Calvary Lutheran. Pastor Ken will have copies of this study guide or you can pick up one from the office. We hope you will join us for this informative look at the faith and values of the NALC. Bring a friend !!
