After the Turkey

I probably shouldn't tell you this but... I always fear Thanksgiving a little. Thanksgiving makes me nervous for two reasons. First, I'm not a very good cook so I'm always a little nervous that the turkey won't be cooked right. (Thank you Grandma and PopPop for cooking and keeping us safe.)

Secondly, the day after Thanksgiving, the whole world seems to fall into a terrifying countdown cycle to Christmas. Don't get me wrong, I'm a big fan of Jesus!! I'm very excited that we get to spend a whole month preparing for his arrival and a full weekend celebrating his birth. It's all the "other stuff" that goes along with the holiday business that I'm not very good at. The over packed calendars, the obsessing about what gifts to buy for family and friends who have everything, the food and the festivities... it's a lot of extra stuff.

So, if you are also a little nervous about all the extras that are coming, I'd like to invite you to join me each weekend in December for worship. Together we will take a moment to sit in the presence of God, to be thankful for His many gifts and to worship and pray together.

However, if you're one of those people who is so excited about the coming countdown, I'd like to invite you too! Share your joy and your excitement with those of us who are a little overwhelmed.

Together we will sit at the foot of the cross, thankful for our new life in Christ. Together we will worship and pray, study and serve one another and the world around us. Together we will sit and wait for Jesus, all-the-while having our lives changed by the power of His grace.

Let us gather in worship,
Pastor Dawn

SALT Advent / Christmas Gathering

Friday, December 2
1:30 - 4 p.m.
Fellowship Hall

See information on the glass doors of the Narthex.

Christmas & Holiday Sing-Along Sunday, December 4, at 4 p.m.

Join us for a Christmas & Holiday Sing-Along at Calvary Lutheran Church. All are welcome – bring family, friends, neighbors, etc.! Let's fill God's House.

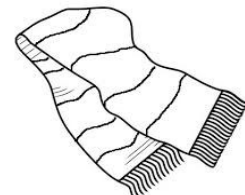

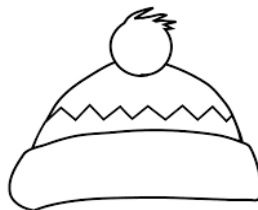

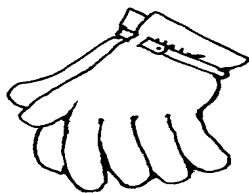

Singing will start with hymns for Advent and Christmastide in the Sanctuary followed by holiday songs in the Fellowship Hall while enjoying refreshments.

It doesn't matter if you are a singer or simply someone who loves to belt out your favorite song with the radio or in the shower. Come, get happy with the release of those feel-good hormones we experience when singing!

And, yes, there is a Packer game that day at noon which will prime your vocal cords for the Sing-Along after the game!

Decorate the Mitten Tree

Our mittens-gloves-hat-scarf tree will be in the Narthex now until December 5. Please help to decorate the tree with warm items for all ages (think keeping warm in Wisconsin). Your donations will be delivered to B.A.S.I.C.S. (Brothers and Sisters In Christ Serving) for distribution in Milwaukee. Help keep our MKE neighbors warm!

THANK YOU!

Dear Calvary Family:

I have been so thankful to have worked full time with you for 31 years. It is now a time in my life when I need to shorten my work days. Fortunately, I will be able to continue to serve Calvary from 8 a.m. to noon, Monday through Friday starting January 3, 2017. I look forward to working with my fellow co-workers to provide you with a smooth, efficient operating office.

Blessings,
Holly

Women's Winter Bible Series - "Breathe"

After the busy days of December, it's time for us women to "Breathe".

"Breathe" is the title of the 5 session DVD-based Bible study led by Priscilla Shirer that we've planned for January, February and early March.

The publisher's description says:

One of the greatest challenges among women in our culture is taking time to stop and cease from all the activities and busyness and just breathe. We are in bondage to busyness. We constantly strive to complete the limitless to-do lists that hinder us from experiencing all that God has for us. We miss the moments because we rush ahead to the next thing. By neglecting time for tranquility, serenity, and repose, we limit our Christlikeness and miss out on some of God's greatest gifts. It is time for us to breathe and build margin into our lives for God. In the Old Testament, God instituted principles and laws that would transform the Israelites' mindset. He didn't just want them legally free; He wanted them to be able to walk in the freedom and enjoy it. So God gave them many gifts, including boundaries in which to enjoy those gifts. Sabbath was intended as a gift, and it is still a gift to us today. If you are weary, worn out, and exhausted, the concept of Sabbath will change your life.

We will offer each session at three different times so you can come to the one that fits your schedule any particular week. All sessions will be in Room 109 – the media room. For the Monday evening sessions, we'll meet from 7 to 8:30 p.m. and for the Tuesday daytime sessions, we'll offer a session from 10:30 to noon and another from 1 to 2:30 p.m. The meeting dates are as follows:

Monday Evenings: January 9 & 23
February 13 & 27
March 6

Tuesday Morning & Afternoons: January 10 & 24
February 14 & 28
March 7

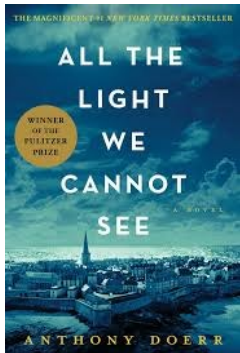

Through a generous gift from a friend of Calvary, we are able to offer the student guide at no cost! Please add your name to the sign-up sheet in the narthex by December 31 – and bring a friend. We know God has something new to teach us about Sabbath.

Monday Morning Movie - December 12 at 9 a.m.

We're stepping back into 1940 to watch "The Shop Around the Corner" starring Margaret Sullavan and Jimmy Stewart. In this wonderful black and white film, two shop clerks in Budapest fall in love while corresponding as anonymous pen pals. The timing for the perfect ending is perfect – Christmas Eve.

Two brief but fascinating bonus features added to the bill will bring our total viewing time to just about 2 hours.

Please note the date for this movie morning. It will be the second Monday for this month only. We'll return to our regular third Monday of the month in January.

Women's Ministry Book Group – January 9, 2017

We're taking the month of December off, but we invite all Calvary women and their friends to our book discussion on Monday, January 9 from 1 to 2:30 pm in the media room (Room 109).

Our selection is All the Light We Cannot See by Anthony Doerr. From the "Booklist" review:

A novel to live in, learn from, and feel bereft over when the last page is turned, Doerr's magnificently drawn story seems at once spacious and tightly composed. It rests, historically, during the occupation of France during WWII, but brief chapters told in alternating voices give the overall—and long—narrative a swift movement through time and events.

We hope you can join us for discussion of this beautifully written novel.

Mission & Outreach

December Mission of the Month:

This month Calvary's mission focus is on education with the support of seminaries and seminarians. Donations will be used to support the two components of one NALC Seminary system: the Seminary Center at Trinity School for Ministry in Ambridge, Pa., and Houses of Studies located within NALC Mission Districts.

The primary purpose of the Seminary is to educate and produce orthodox, confessing, evangelical Lutheran Pastors for our NALC churches. Financial support enables us to continue to train such Pastors and send them out to do the work of our Lord. The NALC recently sent five graduates out to begin their work. Financial support is also required to support students with funds for scholarships to help them in their quest for such an education without being burdened by excessive debt.

An additional need of the NALC Seminary is seminarians. Local congregations like Calvary are the source of future seminarians. We need to identify, encourage and support prospective seminarians as they consider their educational choices.

Calvary has supported the NALC Seminary the past few years with an appeal in December. The hope is as we look at our blessings, we conclude that a Christmas gift to the Seminary would be an appropriate way to thank the Lord for the abundance He has provided to us. Also, the Endowment Fund has sent a gift to the Seminary to further their important work to send out future shepherds of the flock.

Please join us in sending our Christmas gift to the NALC Seminary as our response to the blessings we have received. Use your weekly offering envelopes, white pew envelopes, or give online. Checks should be made out to Calvary Lutheran Church and note: December Mission of the Month.

December Food Sunday

Thank you to everyone who contributed last month. The next Food Sunday is Cleaning Products Sunday, with collection on December 17 & 18, 2016. Recommended items include dish or laundry detergent, cleaning products for kitchens & bathrooms, etc. Other items of need at the Waukesha Food Pantry are rice, canned meats, fruits or vegetables, soups, and cereals. If you prefer to make a monetary contribution, please mark your envelope or check with the notation "Food Pantry".
