"O give thanks to the Lord for He is good, for his steadfast love endures forever." Psalm 136

This wonderful verse is not the entirety of the Psalm 136, but the phrase "his steadfast love endures forever" is spoken 26 times in its 26 verses. The writer of this Psalm invites our praise because the goodness of God in verses 1-3, but then in verse 4 begins to recount the acts of God. In verse 26, the concluding verse, the writer reverts to simply thanking the God of heaven, "for his steadfast love endures forever."

In between verses 3 and 26 the Psalm is a review of the Bible – at least as it was known to the writer. Verses 4-9 offers a re-statement of the story of creation with each act of creation accompanied by the refrain "for his steadfast love endures forever." Verses 10-22 is a history of Israel – beginning with the Exodus from Egypt to the inheritance of the promised land, followed by "for his steadfast love endures forever." Finally, verses 23-25 are a recollection of how God remembered Israel in their "low estate", and could refer either to the Exodus again or the return from Babylonian exile.

And this is where the Psalm has room for our personal stories and histories – this is where the Psalm allows us to say; "the Lord remembered me when I was low – for his steadfast love endures forever." And this is also where the Psalm becomes a point of contact for the church, for the foundation of our faith could be articulated in the words of Paul in Romans 5:6-8 says "For while we were still weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly. Indeed, rarely will anyone die for a righteous person – though perhaps for a good person someone might actually dare to die. But God proves his love us in that while we were sinners Christ died for us."

"Daily Devotions"

When Christians speak of "daily devotions," they are referring to a time set aside each day for Scripture reading and prayer. A "devotional" is a published resource often used for such a purpose. To "do our devotions" or "have our devotional time" are common ways people speak of engaging in this activity. Sometimes, you may also hear people refer to their family time of prayer as "the family altar."

FAT TUES DAY®

FAT Tuesday Feb. 13 Mardi Gras
Calvary Youth Style!

Come and experience a little bit of Mardi Gras, Calvary Youth Style!

Pancakes, jazz, beads, and friends! Satisfy your hunger one more time before Lent begins. Calvary's youth will prepare and serve a hearty Fat Tuesday supper of jambalaya, scrambled eggs, pancakes, etc. for you to enjoy as you listen to New Orleans jazz and catch colorful strings of beads tossed by our youth.

It's a celebration you won't want to miss! Bring your friends, relatives, classmates, and neighbors! Free will offerings will be for Calvary Youth, Mission Trip, and Camps.

Finding a Place at Calvary

Maybe you've been worshipping with us for a few weeks and you wonder what other ministries we offer. Maybe you've been part of our Calvary family for a while and you're looking for a new place to get connected. Whatever the reason, we hope you'll take a few moments and investigate what Calvary has to offer.

How to get connected at Calvary:

1. Investigate: Review the options. Does something look interesting? Check out the Annual Report to learn more.
2. Make Contact: Contact the office and leave a message for the ministry lead for that area! Call 262-786-4010 or email Holly@calvarylc.com and she will pass your information on to the right person!
3. Learn more! The ministry lead will contact you and give you information on that ministry area. You can check out a meeting or shadow someone for a few weeks (for example... if you wanted to help with the Worship PowerPoints, or help tie quilts... we'll train you!)
4. Repeat as needed.

What Does This Mean?

"The Sign of the Cross"

The "sign of the cross" is a physical movement of the hands made when speaking the name of the Trinity - the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. This historical tradition is used in many churches as a reminder that God has laid claim to our lives through our Baptism into his name.

In worship, the sign of the cross is often placed upon the people by the pastor, at the same time, individuals may also trace the sign of the cross over their own heart.

Using the right hand, the first movement is down, from head to stomach (God to us). The second movement traces a "J" down and up to the heart (death to life). The third movement goes across from left to right (me to you).

"The Sign of the Cross" is from Holy Families! an initiative of the North American Lutheran Church provided through a generous grant from the Thrivent Foundation, in honor of the 500th anniversary of the Lutheran Reformation (1517 AD to 2017 AD). Produced by Sola Publishing, this special initiative includes a number of Lutheran discipleship resources for families and congregations.

Additional resources are available at <http://www.holyfamilytime.com>

See the happiness of the children serving on Youth Sunday. They definitely love being part of worship.

What happened to all 294 items that adorned the Calvary mitten tree? On December 31 BASICS (Brothers and Sisters in Christ Serving) had an outreach in the Sherman Park neighborhood of Milwaukee. The items from our congregation were distributed at that event. It was a frigid day with our donations providing warmth to the attendees.

FYI, we had 94 items on the 2016 mitten tree and 294 this season. Your generosity was overwhelming. Start collecting mittens, hats, gloves, scarves and socks for the December 2018 tree.

Women's Ministry Book Group - February 12, 1 p.m.

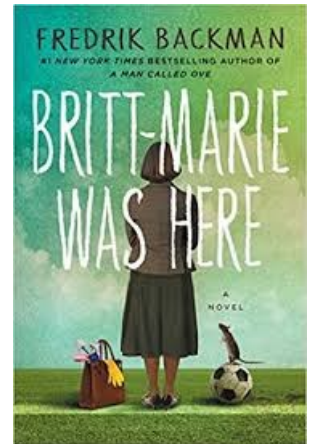

Because of an issue of availability of library books, we've moved our selections around this month.

We'll be reading Britt-Marie Was Here by Fredrik Backman for our book group gathering Monday, February 12 at 1:00 in Room 110 (media room).

Britt-Marie can't stand mess. A disorganized cutlery drawer ranks high on her list of unforgivable sins. She is not one to judge others—no matter how ill-mannered, unkempt, or morally suspect they might be. It's just that sometimes people interpret her helpful suggestions as criticisms, which is certainly not her intention.

But hidden inside the socially awkward, fussy busybody is a woman who has more imagination, bigger dreams, and a warmer heart that anyone around her realizes.

When Britt-Marie walks out on her cheating husband and has to fend for herself in the miserable backwater town of Borg—of which the kindest thing one can say is that it has a road going through it—she finds work as the caretaker of a soon-to-be demolished recreation center. The fastidious Britt-Marie soon finds herself being drawn into the daily doings of her fellow citizens, an odd assortment of miscreants, drunkards, layabouts. Most alarming of all, she's given the impossible task of leading the supremely untalented children's soccer team to victory. In this small town of misfits, can Britt-Marie find a place where she truly belongs? ----- from amazon.com

Join us for a chat about this funny, touching, and inspiring book!

Monday Morning Movie - February 19, 9 a.m.

"When the beautiful maiden Buttercup hears that her true love Westley is dead, she reluctantly agrees to marry the loathsome Prince Humperdinck. After Westley returns to rescue Buttercup, the two begin an epic adventure filled with fencing, fighting, giants, monsters, miracles, true love and hilarity!"

This blurb from the DVD case of "The Princess Bride" promises a perfect Valentine's Day experience (just a few days late). It will brighten a chilly Wisconsin Monday morning. We hope you can join us in the media room at 9 am on Monday, February 19.

February Mission of the Month: LUTHERAN BIBLE TRANSLATORS

lutheran bible translators
GOD'S WORD
for every language

Mission and Outreach is facilitating gifts of the Congregation, both monetary and in service, to share the Good News. In February our focus is on sharing the Good News in Africa. In the early 1900's there were an estimated 9 million Christians in Africa. Today reports show growth to over 500 million. Yet, there are one billion people in Africa. OPPORTUNITY!

Lutheran Bible Translators in partnership with Wycliffe Bible Translators plays a huge role in this growth. Since founded in 1964, Bible translators have brought literacy and Christ's Good News of Salvation to millions. To translate the Bible to "Languages of the Heart" - the language of an indigenous people, requires first learning the language by immersing in the villages. Then CREATING a written language, and finally translating the New Testament into the people's language...of their heart. Currently there are over 80 missionaries translating the New Testament into 26 indigenous languages for Africa. More information is available at www.lbt.org and www.wycliffe.org Calvary's support of Lutheran Bible Translators included the Federwitz family (Bernie Liedtke's brother Dale's family) and the Burmeister family as they play a large part in the growth and sharing of the Gospel through Lutheran Bible Translators/Wycliffe Bible Translators. Both families have roots in southeast Wisconsin.

The Dale and Alvina Federwitz family began work in Liberia in 1971 and planted missionary seeds with their family. The four Federwitz children continue the work with Danny and Becca (Bernie Liedtke's niece) DeLoach in Papua New Guinea and Jonathan and Carrie Federwitz in Mission Aviation reaching those where roadways are limited. In Ghana, West Africa, Federwitz children David and Paul with their spouses, Valerie and Ali, respectively, serve with Lutheran Bible Translators. Specifically, Paul supports the mission as a computer specialist. Computer technology has significantly reduced from 16-18 years to 10 years the time needed to learn the language, develop the alphabet and literacy program, translate the New Testament, and have the people learn the Good News.

The Jonathan and Nancy Burmeister family committed to move to the Ivory Coast in 1978 and worked with Wycliffe to translate the New Testament into the indigenous languages in the Ivory Coast. Today, Nancy is still helping to recruit new missionaries for translation work and aids with the training of Bible translators.

Our monetary gifts in February support bringing The Good News and literacy to those in great need of hope, love, peace and salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord. Please pray for all those involved in and graced by Lutheran Bible Translators. Use your weekly offering envelopes, white pew envelopes, or give online. Checks should be made out to Calvary Lutheran Church and note: February Mission of the Month.

Worship Service / Event Cancellation Due to Weather

As we move into winter, worship services and other events will proceed as scheduled unless notice is given otherwise. As always, if you feel you cannot safely proceed to worship or an event, please make the best decision for you and your family. When worship services or other church events are cancelled due to inclement weather, it will be announced on TODAY'S TMJ4. As soon as possible, it will also be sent via Constant Contact email. On weekdays, the church office may open late or close early due to inclement weather.
