Pastor Ken Nelson, Senior Pastor

*"Then he said to him "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom". Jesus answered him
"I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in paradise""
Luke 23:42-43*

*"All flesh is like grass and all its glory like the flower of grass. The grass withers and the flower falls, but the word of the Lord endures forever. That word is the good news that was announced to you."
1 Peter 1:24*

Pastor, what happens when you die? This hardly seems a topic for springtime, when everything around us is bursting with life. But owing to the frequency with which I am asked this question and the differing points of view I have heard expressed by members of my congregations as well as pastoral colleagues, it's clearly an issue that folks think about. The simple answer is that for the Christian, we pass from the confines of earthly life to heavenly life. That simple truth – the "what happens" question is never in dispute. But the "when does this change occur" question is not as clear. There is biblical support, such as in our passage from Luke, that the instant we die we enter heaven. Lutheran tradition has consistently held that if a person is to inherit eternal life - enter the "Kingdom of Heaven" that is, the moment of death determines that. It's our "now or never moment" you might say.

This passage from Luke of course pertains to the moment of Jesus' own death, and involves a unique conversation about dying. Folks ask "well, if Jesus says "today, you will be with me in paradise" does that mean that when we die we immediately enter the company of Jesus?" The best I can say is "yes", and "in a matter of speaking". When we die, we bury our bodies in the ground in the "sure and

OUR MISSION & VISION:

The vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is:
"Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ"

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life". But our graves are occupied until Jesus calls us forth from them. Our soul is freed, to be reunited one day with what Paul in I Corinthians 15 calls "our heavenly body". That still awaits – as Paul says, the "trumpet sound" when the dead will be raised as eternal bodies, and we will be changed. No one, aside from Jesus, has been so resurrected. Not yet.

It may be helpful for us to think of it this way - when we die, we, like the grass of the field, fade away. We change, and then again, not entirely. I don't want to press the metaphor too far, but we folks in Northern climates know about such things – we know all about grass that for a time is dormant and then springs to life. When we die our earthly bodies "go dormant" – they become "lifeless", yet they retain the promise and potential for new life – because as I Peter says, the word of the Lord that was announced to you and received in you. That promise and potential is our faith in the good news of Jesus Christ. When the right conditions exist, we will live - be vibrant again. Those "conditions" will take place when the Lord Jesus returns in glory and time as we know it ends.

To think of it perhaps one other way, when we die, we move from 'minute by minute time' to "forever". For those who die in Christ, as the thief on the cross, the next conscious thought we will have is heaven....paradise. Let me offer an analogy from my own past experience. When we would take a family vacation, our young girls were filled with anticipation. "When can we leave...when does our vacation start?" To calm them down a bit....and to get to bed myself, I usually said "vacation starts the minute you close your eyes and fall asleep". Once they fall asleep, the next conscious thought they will have is dad or mom telling them "it's time to leave". Vacation has started. But then really, for them, it started when they nodded off the night before.

When we die in Christ, we, as our funeral liturgy proclaims, enter "the blessed rest of everlasting peace" and the next conscious thought someone has is eternity...timelessness. Jesus said "today" to the thief and meant it. The man would die that day. And when he did, the next thing he would realize is eternity with God because of the good news proclaimed to him by Jesus. His final resurrection awaited – it was as Paul says in I Corinthians 15 a wait that will end "when the trumpet sounds and the dead in Christ will be raised imperishable, and we will be changed". But it was and is a "blessed rest of everlasting peace" wait. Ours will be as well...because of a cross.

I wish you a very pleasant start of summer, with all its abundant life.

Pastor Ken Nelson

Pentecost is the festival when Christians celebrate the gift of the Holy Spirit and is on June 4th this year. It is celebrated on the Sunday 50 days after Easter (the name comes from the Greek pentekoste, "fiftieth").

The Season after Pentecost begins the day after Pentecost and ends the day before the First Sunday of Advent. It may include twenty-three to twenty-eight Sundays, depending on the date of Easter, but the first Sunday is always Holy Trinity Sunday (June 11), and the last Sunday is always Christ the King Sunday (Nov. 26). The season also includes All Saints and Thanksgiving.

Although the scripture lessons for this half of the year go in a semi-continuous cycle through books of the Bible rather than follow a theme, the gospel lessons cover Jesus' teaching ministry.

The Calvary Crossroads is published monthly. All news articles should be submitted to the church office by the deadline listed on the church calendar. Electronic submissions are preferred (email: communications@calvarylc.com). If you received this issue via email only and would like to receive a printed copy in the mail, please contact the Calvary church office. (262.786.4010) Printed copies are available at the church also.

Thanks and gratitude are due to the Contemporary Musicians, Alleluia Choir, Celebration Ringers and Cherub Choir, all of whom rehearsed many hours, even on cold, snowy days of winter. The music doesn't happen without these fine people.

There is room for more! Celebration Ringers desperately need handbell players to fill in some blank spaces (two people would be nice, five would mean we can drag out the other two octaves of bells). Ringers rehearse on Tuesday nights, 6 to 7 pm fall through spring. Alleluia Choir can always use voices in all parts. They rehearse Wednesday nights, 7 to 8 pm also fall through spring. Cherub Choir and the Contemporary Musicians practice most Sundays at 10:15 and 10:30 am, respectively. All that's needed to join is the commitment to rehearsals and the occasional Sunday service.

Now that we're into summer season, you have the opportunity to join Summer Choir. Here's the deal: join us in the Choir Room on a specific Sunday at 8:15 am, learn a simple anthem and the hymns, and sing on that Sunday morning. Summer Choir dates are June 4th (Pentecost), July 16th, and August 20th. This is a great opportunity to try out choir!

Special thank you to our music leadership—Gene Traas, Tina Baumgartner, and Carolyn & Terry Trotier.

Women's Ministry Movie & Book Group Wrap-up – June 12, 2017

Attention all women of Calvary! Whether you've been able to be part of the book group or come for the Monday morning movies this year, we hope you can come to all or part of the wind-up of these two Women's Ministry programs.

On Monday, June 12, we'll begin at 9 am by watching the Swedish film "A Man Called Ove" in the media room. This wonderful movie is in Swedish, but the English subtitles make it very easy to follow. We'll share suggestions for movies we'd like to see next year as well. We do our movie watching the third Monday of each month, September through May (except the month of December) at 9 am in the media room. No sign-ups; just come when you can.

Next on the agenda for June 12 is lunch at noon in Fellowship Hall. Each person will bring her own sandwich or salad, etc. We'll provide some fresh fruit, chips, lemonade, water, coffee, and Door County cherry pie a la mode for dessert.

Following lunch, it will be time to select the books we want to read next year. If you have suggestions, please email the titles to Grace Gunnlaugsson by June 10 (gracemg@mac.com). She'll check availability at the library, etc. to help the selection process move along. We try to read a variety of books including at least one biography, one classic, one non-fiction, and one fiction. We meet the second Monday of each month, September through May (except the month of December) at 1 pm in the media room. Again, come when you can (even if you haven't read the book!)

We hope you'll be able to join us for at least part if not all of this fun day – and bring a friend along!

June Food Sunday

Cereal is the next Food Sunday with collection on June 17-18. Recommended items are boxed cereals and bars, oatmeal, and PopTarts. Other items of need at the Waukesha Food Pantry are rice, peanut butter, canned meats, soup, fruits or vegetables, and cereals. If you prefer to make a monetary contribution, please mark your envelope or check with the notation "Food Pantry". Your continued support is greatly appreciated - thank you!

Men's Ministries

Wednesday Breakfast

Join the men of Calvary on Wednesday's at 7 a.m. at Maxim's on Capitol Drive for breakfast and fellowship. Come when you can and bring a friend!

Monthly Thursday Gathering

The fourth Thursday of each month, the men gather for dinner and fellowship. The next meeting is in the Fellowship Hall on Thursday, June 22 starting at 6 p.m. with dinner at 6:30 p.m. and devotion /discussion time at 7 p.m. It's barbeque time to go along with that cold one!

Happy Father's Day!
