"Praise be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves have received from God."

II Corinthians 1:4

As a pastor I have used this verse more times than I can count – it's been hundreds of times however. II Corinthians 1:4 forms the basis of the opening sentence of the order of service for Christian burial in the Lutheran Book of Worship. I have always thought of it as a verse to comfort the grieving, but Paul uses this "comforting statement" to remind us that God comforts people suffering in any way. When folks attend a funeral, they are in a very wonderful way "comforting others (the grieving family) with the same comfort (they) have received from God."

People who attend a funeral all do so out of respect for the grieving family or because they are a friend or co-worker or knew the deceased. They may also do so because they themselves have been in the same place – grieving the loss of someone close to them, and they know how it feels. But Christians who attend such gatherings also do so to give "praise to God, the Father of our Lord Jesus" – who raised Jesus from the dead and gives hope to those who suffer loss. They add the "distinctively Christian" component of coming to worship the Savior whose resurrection insures theirs one day, in other words.

As a pastor I am always grateful for the people who attend a funeral, and make it a point before the close of the service to express that gratitude to the attendees, both my own but particularly on behalf of the family. I tell them "they are doing a good work, and it is much appreciated." As most of you know, we are in the opening stages of becoming a "Stephen Ministry" congregation. Stephen Ministry is dedicated to comforting one another in their sorrows with the comfort of Christ, and those of you who

OUR MISSION & VISION:

The vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is:
"Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ"

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

may become Stephen Ministers in our congregation may also be adding another vital component to your care – your own personal experience in suffering a loss.

You, the Stephen Minister therefore, have such giftedness – such a vital and needed combination of characteristics, your faith and your compassion, born of faith and perhaps your own memory of the time you hurt or were anxious about life. As your pastor, I want to thank those of you who are even considering becoming a Stephen Minister and may, if the Lord leads, be a part of our first Stephen Ministry team by enrolling in our training sessions.

On behalf of someone or "several some-ones" you may care for, I also want to say thank you. You would be part of a wonderful shared ministry, one that extends the care that I freely admit I cannot always provide. Just as my presence alone at a funeral service, no matter how wonderful a message I may bring cannot do all the work of comforting, so my ministry as pastor cannot alone reach all the people of our congregation. By becoming a Stephen Minister, you would be multiplying our caregiving enormously, you may be just the person someone needs, and you would be gladdening my heart as I know I have someone to share this important work of ministry with – as would I might add, our other Stephen Ministry Leaders Scott and Peggy Langelin.

I invite everyone to come to the sessions we are having on March 3rd and 4th immediately after worship to answer your questions about Stephen Ministry. We'll try to address questions both from the perspective of prospective ministers as well as prospective care receivers. Keep us in your prayers. I close with a quote from Father John Boeglin of Holy Family Catholic Church of Jasper, Indiana, and a Stephen Congregation;

"There's no way I could minister to so many without Stephen Ministers. They are my most valued lay partners in one-to-one care of our parishioners."

Stephen Ministry truly expresses what it means to care for one another in the Body of Christ."

Thanking each and everyone one of you for the privilege of serving,

Pastor Ken Nelson

March 2018

Dear Friends,

We serve an awesome and almighty God! Everything He does is perfect and can be trusted. When we seek and trust Him, He makes clear the path that we are to follow in life. I cling to this passage in Proverbs 3: "Trust in the Lord with all your heart."

It is both with anticipation and sadness that I share the news of my retirement as Office Manager, effective March 30. I want to express my heartfelt gratitude for giving me a wonderful opportunity to serve, learn, and grow with the staff and members of Calvary Lutheran Church over the past 33 years.

I will treasure each memory and pray for the health and well-being of each ministry member. I want to express my sincere gratitude for the support you've offered me over the years. We have shared a wonderful work relationship as well as friendship. All of your support has made working here an enjoyable and rewarding experience. I can truthfully say that my leaving feels as though I am leaving family. And that's a good thing! You've been a blessing to me and my family. I pray that I have served this congregation and our Lord Jesus in a pleasing and honorable way.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude and respect for Pastor Ken's ministry, vision, leadership, prayers and compassion for the members and staff of Calvary. Most of all, I will miss the weekly office routine of working with Kris Molitor (for 18 years) and, more recently, Cindy Rooks and Gene Traas. Working with them has been my privilege and we have shared a wonderful team relationship and great camaraderie.

As I look forward to a new life journey in retirement, I will certainly miss the time I have spent with you. Thanks again for every good and kind thing you have done for me, but thanks most of all for the friendships I have made and the memories I will take with me.

May God continue to bless the ministry of Pastor Nelson, the staff, all leadership, and the faithful members of this amazing congregation.

Peace be with you always,

Holly Novotny

Women's Ministry Book Group - March 12, 1 p.m.

All Calvary women are invited to get together in Room 110 (media room) on Monday, March 12 at 1:00 to discuss this month's selection, Miss Julia Stirs Up Trouble by Ann B. Ross.

The "Booklist" review sums it up this way:

Miss Julia's house is awfully quiet now that Hazel Marie and her family have finally moved out. But over in the new Puckett-Pickens household, it's chaos. What with the twins, housekeeper James lying upstairs with a broken foot, and no-good Uncle Vern showing up again, Hazel Marie is at her wit's end. Added to that, her husband, J. D., has been seen riding around town with a series of other women. Miss Julia, never one to avoid interfering, springs into action. Believing that the best way to help is to teach the kitchen-challenged Hazel Marie how to put a decent meal on the table, she enlists all her friends to provide an easy recipe, then come by and show Hazel Marie how to prepare it. Order is finally restored, but not before Miss Julia gets herself mixed up in an undercover police operation. As an extra bonus, all the recipes provided for Hazel Marie are included. Fans of the series will eat this one up.

Even if you've never met Miss Julia before, come to the book discussion and you'll want to get to know her better.

Monday Morning Movie - March 19, 9 a.m.

This month's film, "Hidden Figures", will interest all Calvary members, both women and men.

This is the storyline as presented by 20th Century Fox:

As the United States raced against Russia to put a man in space, NASA found untapped talent in a group of African-American female mathematicians that served as the brains behind one of the greatest operations in U.S. history. Based on the unbelievably true life stories of three of these women, known as "human computers", we follow these women as they quickly rose the ranks of NASA alongside many of history's greatest minds specifically tasked with calculating the momentous launch of astronaut John Glenn into orbit, and guaranteeing his safe return. Dorothy Vaughan, Mary Jackson, and Katherine Johnson crossed all gender, race, and professional lines while their brilliance and desire to dream big, beyond anything ever accomplished before by the human race, firmly cemented them in U.S. history as true American heroes.

Please join us in Room 110 (media room) at 9:00 am on Monday, March 19 to watch this riveting and compelling film!

March Mission of the Month: Youth Programs

March's MOM is Youth Programs

We all look forward to summer fun. Our youth also look forward to summer's opportunity for a week at Bible Camp and/or THE Mission Trip.

Bible Camp at Lutherdale, is so full of fun-learning, praising, and worshiping. Campers are with kids from other churches sharing their faith, learning through fun songs and activities to grow their personal connection to Christ, creating those rooted experiences which last a lifetime. Kids enjoy the waterfront and slip n slide, play Ga Ga Ball, use the Rock Climbing Wall, see farm animals and visit the camp store. This camp ranges from $410-$500 depending how early kids register. Some families have more than one camper. We can support our campers with contributions to reduce costs that may otherwise inhibit them from attending.

YOUTH PROGRAMS

"THE" Mission Trip creates amazing memorable outcomes. Much planning and preparation goes into them and it is a substantial financial investment as well.

So much internalizing of faith, personal and communal, are the result of THE Mission Trip. Our youth bond with each other, and with other Christians from across the country. There is sacrifice, serving, learning, praising, sharing, shaping, worshiping and fun!

Our youth grow as people - into young adults handling responsibilities such as painting homes, building shelters, supervising children at play and on adventures, visiting with elderly, learning about other cultures and ways of living around the country. These opportunities build deeper faith and dedication to their continuous Christian growth. Many of our kids will probably tell you that THE Mission Trip was the best and most important part of their Christian development after Sunday School.

Please consider a generous gift to support our youth in these Life Changing summer youth programs. Use your weekly offering envelopes, white pew envelopes, or give online. Checks should be made out to Calvary Lutheran Church and note: March Mission of the Month.

March Food Sunday

A Wee Bit O'Green . . . Beans, peas, spinach, etc. are the items requested for the next Food Sunday with collection on March 17-18.
