"And not only that, but we also boast in our sufferings, knowing that suffering produces endurance, and endurance produces character, and character produces hope, and hope does not disappoint us, because God's love has been poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit that has been given to us."

Romans 5:3-5

The Book of Romans, aside from the Gospels, may be the most important book in the Bible. From it we obtain the foundational teachings of Christianity - none more important than Romans 3:21-25 which says that apart from the law, or human merit, "the righteousness of God has been disclosed, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ... whom God put forward as a sacrifice of atonement by his blood..." The theology of grace is everywhere in Romans, but so too is another theme - suffering. One of the challenges to Christianity, one might even say objections to it, is its treatment of suffering. Our salvation was obtained through Jesus' suffering. Our hope in life, according to Romans 5 - proceeds out of suffering.

In Lent, the church, while not wanting to "dwell on suffering", does not look aside from it. In fact, we look directly into the face of it as we remind ourselves of the depth and breadth of God's love for us. Here again, we cite Romans, which in chapter 8 verse 18 says "I consider that our present sufferings are not worth comparing with the glory that will be revealed in us." But it goes on to say, in 8:37-39 that "we are more than conquerors through him who loved us, for I am convinced...that nothing else in all creation will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord."

The Vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is: “Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ”

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

And while the one thing could, and indeed should, separate us from God’s love – our sin — has been the Bible’s understanding of suffering: Why do humans suffer, personally, as groups, even as a human race? Last spring, we received questions in our sermon series survey from our members which pertained to suffering. The actual questions raised were:

- Why do we suffer?
- Faith which has been shaken after tragedy or huge loss to the point that people doubt God’s existence or love for them (e.g. after a divorce).
- Luke 6:27-36 about praying for people who persecute you and being able to turn the other cheek.

In Lent, which begins on Wednesday, March 6 with Ash Wednesday, we will address these questions through the following categories:

- Suffering as personal loss (innocent suffering)
- Suffering on account of personal choice (i.e. as a consequence of our own sin)
- Suffering with someone (how to enter appropriately into another’s loss)
- Suffering with the world (why is the world full of it and does “turn the cheek” in Luke mean letting evil win?)
- How to maintain faith in a good and loving God despite a loss or personal tragedy.

I hope you join us for these messages, and the wonderful mid-week Lenten worship that will surround them. You may have these questions on your mind, and you very likely know someone else who does as well. Consider inviting them. Suffering is intensely personal, so God’s answer to suffering must be personal, and it is. Jesus. Through the Lutheran lens of a theology of the cross, we’ll dwell in these difficult but important questions. Our attempt will not be to “defend” God but to reveal that suffering is how God relates to his people in most intimate way.

Please join us. Our service on Ash Wednesday will be at 7 p.m. The following weeks, the services will begin at 6:30 p.m., and last about 35 minutes. It will be time well spent.

I wish you all a very meaningful Lent.

Because of a cross,

Pastor Ken Nelson

Mission of the Month/Community Outreach

Mission of the Month: LUTHERAN BIBLE TRANSLATORS

Mission and Outreach is facilitating gifts of the Congregation, both monetary and in service, to share the Good News. In March our focus is on sharing the Good News in Africa. In the early 1900's there were an estimated 9 million Christians in Africa. Today reports show growth to over 500 million. Yet, there are one billion people in Africa. OPPORTUNITY!

Lutheran Bible Translators in partnership with Wycliffe Bible Translators plays a huge role in this growth. Since founded in 1964, Bible translators have brought literacy and Christ's Good News of Salvation to millions. To translate the Bible to "Languages of the Heart" - the language of an indigenous people, requires first learning the language by immersing in the villages. Then CREATING a written language, and finally translating the New Testament into the people's language...of their heart. Currently there are over 80 missionaries translating the New Testament into 26 indigenous languages for Africa. More information is available at www.lbt.org and www.wycliffe.org

Calvary's support of Lutheran Bible Translators included the Federwitz family (Bernie Liedtke's brother Dale's family) and the Burmeister family as they play a large part in the growth and sharing of the Gospel through Lutheran Bible Translators/Wycliffe Bible Translators. Both families have roots in southeast Wisconsin.

The Dale and Alvina Federwitz family began work in Liberia in 1971 and planted missionary seeds with their family. The four Federwitz children continue the work with Danny and Becca (Bernie Liedtke's niece) DeLoach in Papua New Guinea and Jonathan and Carrie Federwitz in Mission Aviation reaching those where roadways are limited. In Ghana, West Africa, Federwitz children David and Paul with their spouses, Valerie and Ali, respectively, serve with Lutheran Bible Translators. Specifically, Paul supports the mission as a computer specialist. Computer technology has significantly reduced from 16-18 years to 10 years the time needed to learn the language, develop the alphabet and literacy program, translate the New Testament, and have the people learn the Good News.

The Jonathan and Nancy Burmeister family committed to move to the Ivory Coast in 1978 and worked with Wycliffe to translate the New Testament into the indigenous languages in the Ivory Coast. Today, Nancy is still helping to recruit new missionaries for translation work and aids with the training of Bible translators.

Our monetary gifts in March support bringing The Good News and literacy to those in great need of hope, love, peace and salvation through Jesus Christ our Lord. Please pray for all those involved in and graced by Lutheran Bible Translators. Use your weekly offering envelopes, white pew envelopes, or give online. Checks should be made out to Calvary Lutheran Church and note: March Mission of the Month.

MONDAY MORNING MOVIE MARCH 18 AT 9:00 A.M.

Our movie this month is the film version of the book we'll be reading for March, "The 100-year-old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared". Simply put, this is the plot: After living a long and colorful life, Allan Karlsson finds himself stuck in a nursing home. On his 100th birthday, he leaps out a window and begins an unexpected journey.

Karlsson's life from present to past and back again recounting the fugitive centenarian's career as a demolitions expert and the myriad critical junctures of history, including the Spanish Civil War and the Manhattan Project, wherein Karlsson found himself an unwitting (and often influential) participant.

Come to the Media Room (Room 110) for fellowship, snacks, and laughter. (This movie is rated R because of some use of strong language (not found in the book – why do they do that??), and the movie is in Swedish, but English subtitles make it very watchable.)

MONDAY BOOK CLUB - MONDAY, MARCH 11 AT 1 P.M.

"The One Hundred Year Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared" by Jonas Jonasson. Sitting quietly in his room in an old people's home, Allan Karlsson is waiting for a party he doesn't want to begin. His one-hundredth birthday party to be precise. The Mayor will be there. The press will be there. But, as it turns out, Allan will not . . .

Escaping (in his slippers) through his bedroom window, into the flowerbed, Allan makes his getaway. And so begins his picaresque and unlikely journey involving a suitcase full of cash, a few thugs, a very friendly hot-dog stand operator, a few deaths, an elephant and incompetent police. As his escapades unfold, Allan's earlier life is revealed. A life in which - remarkably - he played a key role behind the scenes in some of the momentous events of the twentieth century.

The One Hundred-Year-Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared is a charming, warm and funny novel, beautifully woven with history and politics. Bring a friend and join us in the Media Room on March 11 at 1:00 p.m. for what's sure to be a lively discussion!

PASTOR KEN'S WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY AT 12:30 P.M. NEW SERIES STARTS MARCH 6

In 2010, the North American Lutheran Church was formed, and in its Confession of Faith is included a "Common Confession", first adopted by the Lutheran Coalition for Renewal (CORE) in 2005. That Common Confession has seven parts and they are:

- The Lord Jesus Christ
- The Gospel of Salvation
- The Authority of Scripture
- A Common Confession of Faith (pertaining to the Lutheran Confessions and other church bodies)
- The Priesthood of All Believers
- Marriage and Family
- The Mission and Ministry of the Congregation.

Sola Publishing, the official publishing house of the NALC, has produced a study guide that will help participants understand the origin and implication of these seven statements. This study resource will form the basis of our sessions and the study guide is available for purchase (not required to participate) for $10, payable to Calvary Lutheran. Pastor Ken will have copies of this study guide or you can pick up one from the office. We hope you will join us for this informative look at the faith and values of the NALC. Bring a friend !!
