Pastor Ken Nelson
Senior Pastor
PastorKen@calvarylc.com

P: "You have made public profession of your faith. Do you intend to continue in the covenant God made with you in baptism...to live among God's faithful people...to hear his word and share in his supper...to proclaim the good news of God in Christ through word and deed...to serve all people, following the example of Jesus Christ...and to strive for peace and justice in all the earth?"

C: "I do, and I ask God to help and guide me".

LBW Service of Affirmation of Baptism

My friend Harry Wendt of Crossways Ministries once said, paraphrasing an old Jewish proverb, "Tell me and I will forget, show me and I will remember, involve me and I will understand...and be changed"! The emphasis of our Confirmation ministry, and eventually all of our education ministries here at Calvary, will be directed toward accomplishing the goal of "involvement" in being a disciple of Jesus Christ – doing what NALC consultant Gary Pecuch calls "creating webs of faith" for every member of the congregation. This is especially important to our young members who have activities galore in their lives, access to 24/7 information and growing networks of friends and contacts. But, as experts tell us, they are some of the most anxious, and at times, loneliest people of our population.

I share a story that I read several years ago from Debbie Streicher who is National Director of 'Generations In Faith Together' (GIFT) Intergenerational Ministry :

"I spent two unplanned weeks at my father's bedside last month. Nine out of ten doctors told us, "Your father has a totally blocked carotid artery on the left side. He does not have enough blood to his brain." We were told he wouldn't live alone again.

The Vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is: “Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ”

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

After a week in the Intensive Care Unit, he was transferred to another floor. One day a doctor appeared at the foot of my father's bed and said he thought there was a real possibility that there was some activity and blood flow in the artery after reviewing the MRI results. He was right! Two days later, my father had surgery to clear the blockage. He is now living independently, driving, and enjoying his normal activities.

I couldn't help but compare thoughts about my father's blockage to apparent blockage in our congregations. I began to envision steps we could take to open the blockage and let the “blood flow”. The fact is a person is more likely to develop blocked arteries as he or she ages. The fact is our congregations are aging! Nine out of ten congregations I visit express concern about our aging population. Can we be the one out of ten with the solution? If we do not intentionally invite children of all ages through our programs and fellowship, are we blocking the way? How many programs in our congregations invite the child? How many invite the adult? How many involve them simultaneously?

When the artery becomes blocked, it's called arterial disease. If one has total blockage, there is no procedure to clear it. If there is a trickle or some flow, there is hope. Perhaps we should take heed: “Your children who follow you in later generations ...will see the calamities that have fallen on the land—nothing planted, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it.” Deuteronomy 29:22-23.

Blockage builds up over the years. If not removed a stroke is inevitable. It's a matter of time. When removed, a healthy flow of blood is fed back to the brain, all types of emotions pour through that had been forgotten such as joy, laughter, memory, and a feeling of elation. A child's strength is the imagination. It's one of the biggest untapped resources we have in our congregations. We are all children of God. Maybe it's a matter of opening our imaginations. A healthy flow of imagination can contribute to a feeling of joy and elation. Where is the child welcome in our congregations? Is there a structure in place allowing a child to freely interpret scripture through the arts? Are joy and elation the norm when all the ages gather?

I ask you to please pray for our Megan Schatz as she affirms her faith on May 19th. Please continue to pray for Josh Morris and Sam Sayas (this year's 6th grade students) and Scott Anderson, Preston Meyer, and Jacklyn Warber (this year's 7th grade students). Pray that they will be part of renewal of our ministries to all ages. They are wonderful young people. Their prayer partners this year have been Annie Bermel, Bonnie Johnson, Kay Marshall, Audrey McGarvie, Judy Sayas and Barb Snyder. They have given these youth their very best and we should be thankful and proud of them.

Kyle Jones, our Youth and Family Ministry Director, has created a wonderful new K-12 plan for faith formation in our congregation that will be refined and implemented next fall. It will be a new way of doing ministry with young people. But it's only a start. It will take time to fully integrate this philosophy into all of our ministries. But we will keep this in the forefront of all that we do.

Because of a cross,

Ken Nelson

Following up on the book group selection for May, The Art Forger by B. A. Shapiro, we'll watch a film about a fictional art museum theft in New York.

"The Thomas Crown Affair" (1999) stars Pierce Brosnan and Renee Russo. This game of cat and mouse pits a millionaire who steals for thrills against a beautiful insurance agent who's torn between turning him in and joining him.

Join us in the Media Room (Room 110) at 9 am on Monday, May 20 for this fast-moving and very entertaining movie!

WOMEN'S MINISTRY MONDAY BOOK CLUB MONDAY MAY 13 AT 1 P.M.

Almost twenty-five years after the infamous art heist at the Isabella Stewart Gardner Museum still the largest unsolved art theft in history one of the stolen Degas paintings is delivered to the Boston studio of a young artist. Claire Roth has entered into a Faustian bargain with a powerful gallery owner by agreeing to forge the Degas in exchange for a one-woman show in his renowned gallery. But as she begins her work, she starts to suspect that this long-missing masterpiece the very one that had been hanging at the Gardner for one hundred years may itself be a forgery. The Art Forger is a thrilling novel about seeing and not seeing the secrets that lie beneath the canvas. "

Come to the media room (Room 110) at 1:00 pm on Monday, April 8 for a final farewell to winter and a good discussion of a delightful book. Bring a friend!

Welcome
New Members

Matt Powers and Heidi Butler were received as new members on March 31. Matt is a pharmacist with Aurora Pharmacy and likes biking, running, listening to music and dancing. Heidi is a massage therapist and is the owner of Heidi's Therapeutic Massage. She enjoys the same activities as Matt, as well as sewing and painting. Matt and Heidi will be married at Calvary later this summer.

Bob and Donna Siderits were also received as new members on March 31. Bob and Donna are both retired and were attending Elmbrook Church. They are friends of Pat Dieck and Janet Zastrow, who introduced them to Calvary. Bob's interests and hobbies include reading, travel and entertaining his grandchildren. Donna also enjoys the same things, in addition to crafts (needlework) and hospitality.

Congregation News and Events

On Sunday, April 7, three of our youth celebrated their First Communion. Cable Gall, Addison Meyer and Ellie Schatz prepared for this special day in several ways. They created their own special glass as a remembrance. Additionally, they wrote a personal confession and prayer about what their first communion meant to them, and placed it into a sealed envelope. These were given to Pastor Ken as they received communion. Following the service, the sealed envelopes were burned in a ceremony to visually represent what occurs in Holy Communion. A cake reception followed the service.

*For as high as the heavens are above the earth, so great is his love for those who fear him:
as far as the east is from the west, so far has he removed our transgressions from us.
Psalm 103:11-12*

LOOKING FOR A WAY TO SERVE AT CALVARY?

On occasion, we host a funeral or memorial service at Calvary. Some are for one of our members, while others are for people related to our congregation in some less formal way. For all of these occasions, we want to be gracious hosts, offering hospitality in the midst of difficult days.

Our "Funeral Angels" ministry provides assistance when a reception is held in Fellowship Hall following a funeral or memorial service. Our Angels help in a variety of ways -- Cake Brigade, Reception Server, Host or Coordinator.

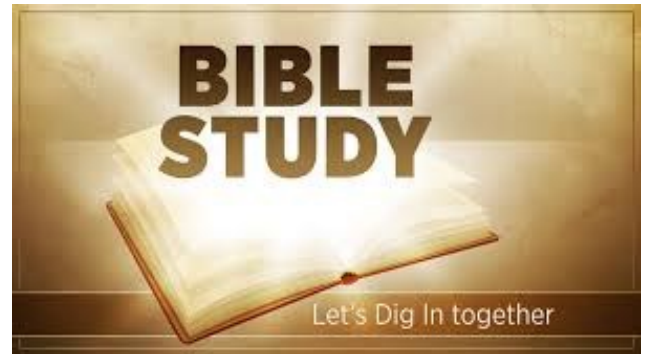

If you'd like to help with this important ministry, or would like more information about any of the specific tasks, we welcome your call at the church office at 262.786.4010 or via email to office@calvarylc.com

PASTOR KEN'S WEDNESDAY BIBLE STUDY AT 12:30 P.M.

In May and early June we will again take up the lessons that will be read in church each week. In the season of Easter we pay particular attention to the first reading, which in place of the usual Old Testament text, are all readings from the Book of Acts. This is done to emphasize the work of the Holy Spirit in building a "new Israel" – which is the church.

We always welcome new participants – no advance preparation is necessary and you can come when you are able. Please join us!
