"The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook." I Kings 17:6

"Consider the ravens..." Luke 12:24a

November is the month of the year in which, if we think about birds at all, it's either because most of them are disappearing and flying south to avoid freezing in an impending Wisconsin winter, or it is that particular species of bird – the turkey – that is given primacy of place on many a table for the feast of Thanksgiving. I'd like to dedicate this missive to another species of bird however – not always an admired one I'll admit – the raven. Commonly associated with the vulture or the crow, ravens are often dismissed as nuisance fowl. But next to the eagle, they are the most mentioned bird of the Bible.

Most translations of Genesis 8:7 have Noah sending out a raven first (not a dove) to see if the waters of the flood had receded, and as it continued to fly back and forth through the skies, Noah released a dove to bring back evidence of what the raven's flight signaled – the earth was under judgement no more – it was rainbow time. The raven can almost be seen as an instrument of God's grace – certainly as a herald of that grace.

Curiously, given what we now know about the dining habits of ravens – scavengers feeding on carrion a good deal of the time, God nevertheless used one to ferry bread and meat to his servant Elijah to keep him alive during 3½ years of drought – so says I Kings 17. I'm not sure I would have wanted the kind of meat a raven was likely to have conjured up for my dinner, but hey, a meal is a meal! The raven in this story isn't just an ancient version of "Uber Eats" - they were again an agent and herald of the grace of God.

"Consider the ravens", Jesus said, "they do not sow or reap, they have no storeroom or barn, yet God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds." Consider the ravens – now presented as recipients of grace – in Jesus' telling their trust in God's provision itself a herald of that grace. I like to keep analogies simple – but any bird-brain can see that if the birds have enough to keep them fed, even if that means plucking the morning away looking for a bug on a branch or a worm through the soil, or in the case of ravens flying about trying to spot a carcass its predator has left enough of for a meal, God will make do for us as well.

The Vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is: "Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ"

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

Consider the raven. In the Bible they are sentinels, providers, and examples of trust. To consider the raven is not such a bad thing. Job 38 asks "Who provides food for the raven, when its young cry out to God..." The implied answer of course is their creator – who imagined and spoke them into existence as he did us. Consider the raven – agent of the provider in I Kings 17 and the provided for one in Luke 12. Are we not to see ourselves the same?

Now for those of you who are savvy in the ways of advertising, I admit the raven isn't used much in church or congregational educational or promotional materials for stewardship campaigns. But as a symbol of gratitude and generosity, we could do worse than employ a creature God created. Working backward through the Bible's raven stories, they are always examples of trust - where generosity has its genesis. If you know you will have plenty, you can give plentifully – as the ravens of Luke 12 reveal.

If you believe in times of scarcity God still looks after for those he loves, you will not hesitate to be agents of that provision even in such times – as you are able, as the ravens of 1 Kings reveal. If you know that the will of God is to restore and prosper his creation and not harm it, you'll announce that by giving yourself to His purposes. You won't play it safe and wait to see how it will all play out or wait till the coast is clear, but rather keep watch, as the raven of Genesis 8 reveals.

Again, consider the raven... consider, as ones loved and provided for; how through your giving you will be providers and heralds of grace. In creation, God saw his birds of the air and on the 5th day said they were "good". They are. But on the 6th day he saw those he'd created in his image, male and female, who alone bear God's likeness, who alone are capable of feeling what God feels and doing what God does, who alone God described with the words "mazel tov" – Hebrew for "very good", and so gave us the highest place.

"And how much more valuable you are than birds." Oh, so very much and I hope you will regard yourselves this way. I hope that when you make your pledges on Commitment Sunday - November 24th, you will take a moment and "consider the ravens", and through the work we do together in God's name boldly, and joyfully be what you were created to be - heralds of grace.

Because of a cross,

NOVEMBER MISSION OF THE MONTH

NOVEMBER MISSION OF THE MONTH:

OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD - GETTING INTO THE SPIRIT

We have been growing our Operation Christmas Child ministry over the past few years. Last year Calvary packed 80 wonderful shoeboxes filled with Christmas Gifts for boys and girls around the world, and many received their first gifts ever! This is an exciting process with choices for families and individuals to shop and pack on their own, or shop for items that will be packed at the Sunday, November 17 Packing Party that will be held directly after the worship service in the Fellowship Hall.

Shoeboxes and "How to Pack a Shoebox" guides are located at the tables in the Narthex. Shopping sign-up lists are posted on the glass doors in Fellowship Hall. If you want to fill a Shoebox, you can choose to pack for a girl or boy between the ages of 2 and 14. The "How to Pack a Shoebox" guides provide ideas on what to shop for each age group.

Financial contributions collected in November will support the shipping of the boxes - $9 shipping for each box. Once we have enough to ship each box we will start ordering The Greatest Journey lessons to go along with our Shoebox gifts ($6 per Greatest Journey). The Greatest Journey shares the Good News of Jesus Christ with children receiving our Operation Christmas Child Shoebox gifts. Through these teaching guides and a booklet of the New Testament, they learn about the GREATEST GIFT EVER - Jesus Christ can be their Savior.

Please join in the JOY of the season. Shop, pack, and/or give financially for shipping and the Greatest Journey. We can embrace the thankfulness we have in the month of November knowing how deeply we are blessed and get in the giving spirit that is the JOY of Christmas. Please mark your financial donations as "Mission of the Month".

MISSION AND OUTREACH

LET'S ALL DECORATE THE MITTEN TREE

Our mittens-gloves-hat-scarf (socks too!) tree will be in the Narthex until December 16. Please help to decorate the tree with warm items for all ages (think keeping warm in Wisconsin). Your donations will be delivered to B.A.S.I.C.S. (Brothers and Sisters In Christ Serving) for distribution in Milwaukee. Help keep our MKE neighbors warm!

NOISY OFFERINGS CONTINUE

Our Sunday School children are contributing to Heifer International through the weekly NOISY OFFERINGS collection. All are invited to drop their loose change in the weekly collection basket. It will be deposited into the collection bottle on the altar and sent to Heifer International next spring. Thanks for your generosity towards this important program.

Pen and Pencil Collection

Right-to-Write is a unique and simple program designed for people to donate pens and pencils (new or used) to put to good use by collecting and then dispensing them to children in developing countries. Donated pens and pencils are delivered to schools, orphanages, and hospitals by individual volunteers, travelers, and organizations who can distribute them hand to hand, person to person, to children who need them.

We are again collecting new and used pens/pencils to send to Right-to-Write. Please place your donations in the plastic tub on the table in the Narthex through November 30.

WOMEN'S MINISTRIES

WOMEN'S MINISTRY BOOK GROUP NOVEMBER 11 AT 1:00 P.M.

Our November book is Our Souls at Night by Kent Haruf.

Amazon.com's summary: In the familiar setting of Holt, Colorado, home to all of Kent Haruf's inimitable fiction, Addie Moore pays an unexpected visit to a neighbor, Louis Waters. Her husband died years ago, as did his wife, and in such a small town they naturally have known of each other for decades; in fact, Addie was quite fond of Louis's wife. His daughter lives hours away, her son even farther, and Addie and Louis have long been living alone in empty houses, the nights so terribly lonely, especially with no one to talk with. But maybe that could change? As Addie and Louis come to know each other better--their pleasures and their difficulties--a beautiful story of second chances unfolds, making Our Souls at Night the perfect final installment to this beloved writer's enduring contribution to American literature.

Join us at 1 pm on Monday, November 11 in Room 110 to talk about this beautifully written book.

CONGREGATION NEWS AND EVENTS

MONDAY MORNING MOVIE – NOVEMBER 18 AT 9:00 A.M.

By November 18, Thanksgiving will be just over a week away. What better movie to watch, and to get us in the mood for turkey day, than “Julie and Julia”. Meryl Streep stars as Julia Child in this film described at amazon.com as follows:

“A culinary legend provides a frustrated office worker with a new recipe for life in Julie & Julia, the true stories of how Julia Child's (Meryl Streep) life and cookbook inspired fledgling writer Julie Powell (Amy Adams) to whip up 524 recipes in 365 days and introduce a new generation to the magic of French cooking. Stanley Tucci (The Devil Wears Prada) co-stars in director Nora Ephron's delicious comedy about joy, obsession and butter. Bon appétit!”

What shall we have for our snack? Join us in Room 110 at 9 am Monday, November 18 and find out. Bring a friend or two - all are invited!

CALVARY'S NATIVITY DISPLAY TRADITION CONTINUES

In the past few years, a new tradition has emerged at Calvary - the sharing of nativity sets in a display in Fellowship Hall during much of the Advent season.

If you would like to share your nativity set(s) this year, here are the details:

- * Sign up on the sheet in the Narthex on the glass doors
- * Bring your nativity set to Classroom #109 between Monday, November 19 and Tuesday, November 27. Please include your name and a description or story about your nativity set (using the info forms near the sign up sheet).
- * If you'd like to share kid-friendly nativity sets, please do! They will be placed on the round tables in Fellowship Hall so kids can play with them.
- * We will keep the Nativity sets on display through Friday, December 20. You can take your set home after service on that Friday. We realize that you may want to take your set home before December 20, and that is fine. We are hoping to have the sets on display for the SALT Christmas party on December 19.

* If you have any questions, please contact Grace Gunnlaugsson at gracemg@maccom or 262.369.3910.
