

Be glad, people of Zion, rejoice in the Lord your God, for he has given you the autumn rains because he is faithful. He sends you abundant showers, both autumn and spring rains, as before.

"But God has combined the members of the body and has given greater honor to the parts that lacked it, so that there should be no division in the body, but that its parts should have equal concern for each other. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it."

I Corinthians 12:24b-26

In John 8:31-32 Jesus said "If you hold to my teaching, you are really my disciples. Then you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free." Disciples are believers who "hold" to Jesus' teaching. Over the summer I suggested the following signs or "habits" based on a book entitled "The 7 Habits of Discipleship" by Pastor Rick Foss, who presented a thoroughly Biblical way of being a follower of Jesus. To review, they are;

Worship weekly

Pray daily

Read and study the Bible regularly

Seek to live your faith in daily life

Seek the supporting relationship of other Christians

Grow in giving toward the goal of tithing

Learn to share faith with others

The fifth "habit" is "seek the supporting relationship of other Christians". In the above passage from I Corinthians, Paul accepted that Christians were "members" of the church – but he pressed that understanding to claim that what we belonged to was each other. Now the word "member" has many potential meanings. We can be members of school organizations or political parties, in which case we'd be like-minded on a set of issues. We can be members of "Amazon Prime" and get free shipping on all kinds of neat stuff! We can even be "members" of a credit card company – and if you don't believe me, look at that American Express card in your wallet you'll see that's exactly what they (it) calls you.

But Christians "belong" to one another – in the sense of being mutually dependent as well as accountable. In our baptism rite, we say "By water and the Holy Spirit we are made members of the church, which is the body of Christ. As we live with him and with his people, we grow in faith, love and obedience to the will of God." I have often said (tongue-in-cheek of course) that of the two "works of God" in Baptism – the first being reborn as children of God through the forgiveness of sins, and the second being made members of the church – the latter is the much more challenging one for God to pull off! Living with one another is not easy – no matter the nature of the relationship. Being a member of “Amazon Prime” and saving money, and partnering with other Christians to grow in faith, saving one another in times of crisis or from falling into sin are vastly different things!

The Vision of Calvary Lutheran Church is: “Sharing the life-changing message of Jesus Christ”

Mission Statement: Calvary Lutheran Church is a family of Christians, directed by the Holy Spirit, growing as disciples of Jesus through worship, Biblical study and prayer that are shared with the community and world.

But this is the will, or design of God for the church – and pursuing these relationships is a mark of being a disciple of Jesus. Yes, we come together to worship, to serve, to learn - all of which is evidence that we are fulfilling this mark of discipleship. But more than a good work to check off a list, seeking supporting relationships with other Christians is a matter of survival.

Christianity is still accepted in our culture but that I think most would agree, it is something that is eroding. These days identifying as a follower of Christ earns one less respect and more suspicion. In Paul’s time that was all the more true – so he knew that if Christians did not respect one another and seek out supporting, interdependent relationships with one another, they and the church would be the worse off. God designed the church and us to care for one another. That means our spiritual well-being above all else, but it also includes more mundane things like noticing, and then reaching out to a person who is new in the community and offering your friendship.

And it also means cultivating one to one, or as our North American Lutheran Church calls them “Life to Life” discipleship relationships, through which we serve as encouragers of one another and examples to one another of how to live out all the other “marks” of being a disciple. On our own we might very well worship, read the Bible and pray regularly, and live our daily lives by faith. Yes, we all have the Holy Spirit, who Luther said “keeps us united with Jesus Christ in the one true faith.” But we also have each other, to lean into and learn from when our old sinful selves may be causing us to “miss the mark.”

We have amazing giftedness within the body, because we have each other. Disciples of Jesus more than acknowledge the gift of their fellow believers – we know we simply can’t live as we were created to without them.

Because of a cross,

Pastor Ken

Marcella Nelson serves on the national Council of the Women of the NALC (WNALC), a ministry of the North American Lutheran Church which offers guidance to the local congregational women’s groups in their efforts to grow in faith and mission, through prayer and evangelism.

The WNALC meets twice a year—once during the NALC national convocation and a second time at a member’s congregation. Calvary hosted the Council last year and will host again this year. Host homes are needed for six guests that weekend. A sign-up sheet will be posted on the glass doors in the Narthex.

A Prayer Breakfast will be held on Saturday, November 10 at 9:00 a.m. in Fellowship Hall. Many hands are needed to help with this event. Jane Krause is assisting with volunteer sign up, so please see Jane if you can help. There are many opportunities to provide breakfast items, set up, clean up, etc. Contact Jane at janekrause@me.com.

ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND THE BREAKFAST! See the sign up sheet on the Narthex doors. If you have any questions please reach out to Marcella at 701.833.5157 or nelkog@juno.com.

The Calvary Crossroads is published monthly. All news articles should be submitted to the church office by the deadline listed on the church calendar. Electronic submissions are preferred (email: communications@calvarylc.com). If you received this issue via email only and would like to receive a printed copy in the mail, please contact the Calvary church office. (262.786.4010) Printed copies are also available at the church.

NALC Annual Convocation Report Pastor Ken Nelson

Several weeks ago, we included a summary of actions from the NALC Annual Convocation as a bulletin insert. If you did not receive one, you can obtain a copy from the church office or by going to www.thenalc.org, click "Lutheran Week Archives", and then follow the tab down to see the various reports and videos from the gathering, including the "Convocation Recap".

I attended several events during the week, including the Youth Ministry Symposium with Gary Pecuch, who was at Calvary recently, the Braaten-Benne lectures in theology – with this year's theme being "The Person of the Holy Spirit" and, of course, the General Assembly itself.

We have a wonderful church body, with superb leadership led by Bishop John Bradosky. He will end his term as presiding bishop in the summer of 2019, so an election for a new bishop will be held at the 2019 Convocation in Indianapolis.

The NALC grew modestly in 2018 and now has 424 exclusively NALC congregations and also relates to 91 congregations with dual NALC/LCMC status, primarily so that they can be served by pastors from either church body. Nearly $\frac{3}{4}$ of our congregations list themselves as small town or rural, 63 as large city suburban, and 46 are within a major metropolitan area. Four new congregations this year were formed by, and for, Oromo-speaking Christians – most of which are first generation immigrants from the Sudan, Ethiopia and Eritrea in East Africa.

The North American Lutheran Seminary (NALS) has developed, like many higher education institutions, an extensive online presence and satellite locations to make the process of formation for ministry less expensive for students, thus holding down tuition and other costs associated with seminary. The NALC had 10 candidates for ordination enter the seminary process in the past year, and nine completed the process and are seeking their first calls. The supply of pastors in the NALC is generally quite good, with continued interest from current ELCA and LCMC pastors in joining the roster of NALC clergy and bolstered by a steady supply of young theologians. God be praised.

Financially, the NALC has experienced deficits in the last three years due primarily to a leveling of congregational giving, but after its 8th year remains on solid financial footing. Expenses owing to the addition of program staff contribute to the deficits, but were necessary so that service to congregations could be enhanced. Reserves owing to tight budgets and generous gifts in its infancy enable us to enter the end of the year with reserves in the general fund of nearly $775,000, theological education fund of over $1,300,000 and Disaster Response of over $430,000. A projected general fund deficit of roughly $145,000 on a budget of just over $2,000,000 for 2018 is nonetheless within its reach to reduce or eliminate, and if each congregation of the NALC contributed just $1 per member before year end, it would be!

The NALC Disaster Response Ministry is active in reaching out to people in the Carolinas, and remains in Texas working with re-building efforts. The newly-formed Great Commission Fund, led by Pastor Gemechis Buba, helped the four new congregations that formed this past year extend their ministry, and in two cases secured modest buildings to house their congregations. A missionary to the Sudan was ordained and commissioned, and will work with displaced refugees in that war-torn region. Again, God be praised!

Ministry partners such as Lutheran World Relief, Lutherans for Life, Sola Publishing, with its increasing array of solid Lutheran publications, World Mission Prayer League, and Water Mission all gave reports at the Assembly and gave evidence that wonderful work is being done through NALC churches. We were encouraged to keep up to date by picking up copies of the monthly newsletter, the quarterly publications of the Women of the NALC and the North American Lutheran Seminary, and the bi-monthly magazine "Connections." Above all, keep the NALC, whose core values to be Christ-Centered, Mission-Driven, Traditionally-Grounded and Congregationally-Focused were in evidence all week in Denver at this year's convocation.

Sunday, November 4 at 9:00 a.m. worship

We invite you to experience a Drawn to the Word worship and artistic experience where artist and Pastor Paul Oman will paint a larger-than-life sized mural of a Bible study before your eyes during our worship services. The story will unfold artistically, musically, narratively and scripturally during both worship services. There will be a different 4' x 6' mural painted at each worship.

Postcards about this event will be available for you to share the date with friends and neighbors. Please help us to spread the word so we can fill the church and share Paul's experience with as many people as possible.

There will be time for fellowship and to meet Paul Oman following each service.

Special Congregational Meeting Sunday, October 21 at 10:30am

The Endowment Committee and Church Council are bringing forth several amendments to the By-Laws that will require congregational approval. A copy of the proposed changes can be found on the table in the Narthex.

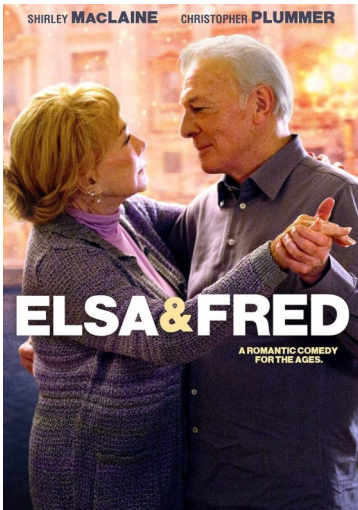

WOMEN'S BOOK CLUB

All the women of Calvary are invited to come to Room 110 at 1:00 on Monday, October 8 to talk about our book selection for this month, The Chilbury Ladies' Choir by Jennifer Ryan.

Amazon summarizes it this way: As England becomes enmeshed in the early days of World War II and the men are away fighting, the women of Chilbury village forge an uncommon bond. They defy the Vicar's stuffy edict to close the choir and instead "carry on singing," resurrecting themselves as the Chilbury Ladies' Choir. We come to know the home-front struggles of five unforgettable choir members: a timid widow devastated when her only son goes to fight; the older daughter of a local scion drawn to a mysterious artist; her younger sister pining over an impossible crush; a Jewish refugee from Czechoslovakia hiding a family secret; and a conniving midwife plotting to outrun her seedy past.

Mystery, romance, history – we'll have a great discussion!

“Monday Morning Movie” October 15 9:00 a.m. in the Media Room

Our movie for October is “Elsa and Fred” starring Shirley MacLaine and Christopher Plummer. We'll meet at 9 am in Room 110.

“Elsa and Fred” is the story of two people who, at the end of the road, discover that it's never too late to love. After losing his wife, Fred (Christopher Plummer) feels disturbed, confused and alone, so his daughter (Marcia Gay Harden) helps move him into a small apartment where he meets Elsa (Shirley MacLaine). From that moment on, everything changes. Elsa bursts into Fred's life like a whirlwind, determined to teach him that the time he has left to live, be it more or less, is precious and that he should enjoy it as he pleases. (excerpt from amazon.com)

We'll begin at 9:00 a.m. with a little fellowship over coffee and snacks followed by this heartwarming movie. Join us for a great start to your Monday!

October Mission of the Month: Shepherd's Canyon Retreat & Broom Tree Ministries

"We laughed, cried, and shared how God can move us from brokenness to restoration. That out of death comes life."a testimonial from the first Shepherd's Canyon Retreat client, March 2009

Wouldn't you like to join us in making possible a counseling ministry for the restoration of hurting clergy couples and other professional church workers? Is there a need for such a ministry? Yes!

- * 20% of pastors are "in crisis" – they are just "hanging on," coping with the issues they face day-to-day
- * Among Protestant clergy, an incredible number quit the ministry every month!
- * Only 50% of pastors entering the ministry today will make it five years
- * 80% of pastors will say that the ministry has had a negative impact on their family
- * Upwards of 70% of pastors fight depression

Broom Tree Ministries provides spiritual retreats for pastors and their spouses. The retreats are designed to provide uninterrupted time with God in rest, reflection, and beauty. We prioritize good food and lots of time with spouses. Our guests consistently experience "aha" moments that bring clarity and challenge for the next season of ministry. Since 1997 we have been strengthening the church one pastor at a time.

Each Shepherd's Canyon seven-day retreat includes up to four client couples (singles are welcome), two counselors – male and female – and a retreat chaplain. Our twelve retreat therapists have a combined 250 years of counseling experience! All counseling is Bible-based. Shepherd's Canyon Retreats are held at Standing Stones Retreat Center near Wickenburg, AZ. Learn more about Shepherd's Canyon at www.StandingStonesAz.org. Broom Tree retreats are held in Michigan and more information can be found at <http://broomtreeministries.org>. Please mark your donations for "Mission of the Month".

Walk for Water with Pastor Ken

Walkers were invited to lift a bucket of water, equivalent to what those less fortunate in foreign countries carry for more than three miles on a daily basis. It was a beautiful day for a 3.2 mile walk that raised $520 for World Vision's water program.

NALC Disaster Relief

Items were collected for disaster relief efforts resulting from the recent hurricane in North and South Carolina. The NALC truck arrived at Calvary on September 22nd and it was loaded with items donated by congregation members and five other local churches.

Thanksgiving items

Food items to prepare a Thanksgiving meal are being requested this month. This will give the food pantry time to distribute in a timely manner. Especially needed are stuffing mix, canned French fried onions, canned gravy, yams and cream of mushroom soup. Please place your donated items in the Calvary Cupboard located near the entrance on the east side of the building. If you prefer to make a monetary contribution, please mark your envelope or check with the notation "Food Pantry". Your continued support of the Waukesha Food Pantry is greatly appreciated!

THANK YOU

Dear Friends:

A small farmer has just received the best gift from you—hope. You see, when you gave to Heifer International, you invested in a hard-working person who wants a better future for their family. Your generosity lets us give a family the livestock and training they need to not just put food on the table, but to improve their quality of life. Because of you, they can get medical care, send their children to school, improve their farms, even start small businesses.

So thank you. I am grateful you chose to invest in the families we support. Your generosity reveals your deep compassion and your commitment to a better world.

Pierre U. Ferrari, President & CEO, Heifer International

FINANCIAL EDUCATION CLASS

What would your life be like if you had no payments? No credit card payments. No car payments. No home equity loan payments. What if every dollar you brought home represented an opportunity for the future instead of an obligation to the past?

Pastor Ken Nelson and Larry Bonier will present his program at Calvary beginning on Thursday, October 18 at 6:30pm. The course workbook and related materials are on display on the table outside the office, if you'd like to look them over before signing up for the class. If you'd like to register for Financial Peace University, please sign up on the glass doors in the Narthex. (If you're not sure this is for you, you can attend the first session free and sign up that day.)

The cost is $100 which also gives you one-year access to Financial Peace University online materials. If you attend a minimum of seven of the nine classes, Calvary will reimburse you $50 of the cost.

SOCK COLLECTION FOR ST. VINCENT DE PAUL MINISTRY

New and gently-used socks, especially in men's sizes, are being collected for St. Vincent de Paul ministry.
