How Can We Be More Fruitful?

The Bible tells us that we, as followers of Christ, are to be "fruitful" or "bear fruit". The dictionary tells us that when something is fruitful, it's productive. Fruitful activity multiplies or adds to what's already there, producing more of something. This is directly in line with the Great Commission and, subsequently our vision & mission statements as we strive to grow and multiply the number of Christians.

But what does this look like? Following is an excerpt from an article describing five practices of "fruitful" congregations. As you read the article, think about how we, as a church and as individuals, can strive to be more fruitful.

5 Practices of Fruitful Congregations

Radical Hospitality Romans 12:9-21

Congregations offer the invitation and embrace of Jesus Christ, the gracious welcome that creates genuine belonging that brings people together in the Christian community. Churches characterized by radical hospitality are not just friendly and courteous. Instead, they exhibit restlessness because they realize so many people do not have a relationship to a faith community. They sense a calling and responsibility to pray and work to invite others and to help them feel welcome and supported in their faith journeys. Congregations surprise newcomers with a glimpse of the unmerited gracious love of God that they see in Christ. Our radical hospitality goes to the extremes, and we do it joyfully, not superficially, because we know our invitation is the invitation of Christ.

Passionate Worship John 4:21-24

In passionate worship, people are honest before God and one another, and they are open to God's presence and will for their lives. People so eagerly desire such worship that they will reorder their lives to attend. Passionate worship motivates pastors not only to improve their preaching, but also to learn continually how to enhance content and technique for effective worship. Worship is something alive that requires continuing care, cultivation and effort to keep it fresh. The motivation for enhancing the quality of worship is not only about deepening our own faith, but also about allowing God to use us and our congregations to offer hope, life and love to others.

Intentional Faith Development 1 Corinthians 9:19-24

Transformation comes through learning in community. Congregational leaders that practice intentional faith develop-

Dear Friends,

Another school year is quickly drawing to a close, and with it graduations are approaching and/or occurring. Many of you, like Dawn and me, have students who are graduating. Hallmark and other card companies are anticipating that each one of us will know someone who is graduating from some level of education. As you prepare cards and wrap presents (or use gift bags from the dollar store – which is my practice), I encourage you to take a few moments to pray for the graduate you are honoring. I encourage you to pray not only for their success in finding a job or achievement in their given field, but also to pray for their continued spiritual growth.

As Christians, we pray daily for a whole host of concerns. It is, of course, very common and important that we pray for our family, friends, and others who are close to us. As we give thanks to God for these people whom He has put into our lives, and pray for their well-being, do we also pray that God will bless them spiritually? Knowing how difficult life is and the many problems that befall us, it is quite natural to pray for their temporal needs without asking God to preserve their faith and bring them to spiritual maturity. There are perhaps few things in this life which are as powerful as a parent or loved-one praying that our faith in Christ Jesus may be deepened and that we may continue to grow in the knowledge of God's mercy and will.

Let us take note of Paul's prayers to God on behalf of the Thessalonians:

"Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus, direct our way to you, and may the Lord make you increase and abound in love for one another and for all, as we do for you, so that he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints." (1 Thes. 3:11-13). We do well in our praying on behalf of others to remember before our Heavenly Father their temporal needs and their spiritual needs. May the Holy Spirit who dwells in you and all the baptized continue to refresh your spirit, deepen your faith, and conform your life to the life of our Lord Jesus.

Congratulations to all graduates, and may the Holy Spirit continue to deepen your faith in Christ through the Word of God!

In Christ Jesus,

Pastor

Deacons Ask for Help with P.A.C.K.ing

In response to Calvary's congregational goals, the Board of Deacons is exploring a ministry called Acts 1:8, based in Green Bay, but active worldwide.

This ministry is centered around Planned Acts of Christian Kindness (P.A.C.K.) events. Our hope is to engage a different (and small) number of Calvary members in a P.A.C.K. event each month in a one-hour event on a Saturday morning. Events might include providing free car washes, giving away items such as loaves of bread, batteries, school supplies, etc. Attached to each give-away or handed to people who receive a free service is a small card telling the recipient that they've been given this gift as a way of showing God's love.

Our first P.A.C.K. event will be at the July 4 parade. Calvary has traditionally given out free bottles of water, and last year they had labels with Calvary's name on them! This year, we want to load coolers with ice cold bottles of water, set them into wagons, and walk along the sidewalk handing them to people. The P.A.C.K. cards attached will have Calvary's info on one side and something like "Jesus is the Living Water" on the other.

Here's where your help comes in. If you might...

- have a wagon we might borrow for the morning OR
- be willing to get the water into the coolers and wagons OR
- be willing to walk along the sidewalk and distribute the water OR
- be able to donate a case of bottled water,

...please get in touch with your deacon (or any deacon!) and let us know.

You'll find the list of deacons and our contact information in this Crossroads issue.

Thank you . . . and watch for future P.A.C.K. events!

The Calvary Crossroads is published monthly. All news articles should be submitted to the church office by the deadline listed on the church calendar. Electronic submissions are preferred (email: kim@calvarylc.com).

If you received this issue via email only and would like to receive a printed copy in the mail, please contact the Calvary church office. Printed copies are available at church also.

Thank You Notes

From Becky Steiner: Dear Calvary family, I can't thank you enough for your support of me in these past four years at Bethel University. God has blessed me with so many opportunities in the last few years, including discipling a group of middle school girls in a youth group at a local Lutheran church, working alongside at-risk youth to help them improve their lives, being able to see God working in the Twin Cities and The Netherlands, as well as taking classes that have helped me to better understand God. Thank you for your continued support and encouragement for me as I finish my education majoring in youth ministry. God bless, Becky Steiner

From Luther Manor: Thank you for your recent donation of 170 dozen cookies donated by the members of Calvary Lutheran Church including the 10 dozen by the awesome and ambitious Youth Bakers at Calvary! The cookies are a reminder of your care and concern for the older adults we serve here at Luther Manor.

Music Notes from Gene Traas

Dear People of Calvary,

Calvary's contemporary Christian music (CCM) groups, Alleluia Choir, and Celebration Ringers are enjoying a little R & R for a few weeks. For this short season that they have rehearsed, offered up, and endured my leadership, I thank them for their service to the Church, making joyful noises to God alone.

For me, there is no [STOP] button. Summer becomes a flurry of planning, tweaking, and teaching, in preparation for next festival year (again, liturgy-geek-ese for "program year,").

Here's what's happening for summer music at Calvary.

Music reading for handbell players: June 2, 9, and 16 (all Tuesday nights) at 6:00PM. A number of handbell players requested this short course, and I am happy to oblige. Remember, it's geared toward handbells, so if you decide to sit in, be prepared to concentrate on two notes at a time.

Summer handbell camp: July 7, 14, and 28 (again, Tuesday nights) at 6:00PM. This is essentially boot camp for handbells:

Participants (and that can be anyone physically able to pick up a handbell) will be taken through basic handbell technique, care and feeding, and a number of compositions, with a concluding Sunday playdate (TBD).

Summer Choir, June 21st, July 19th, and August 16th. A low-impact way to test choral waters, if you've not sung in a church choir recently. Summer Choir meets in the Choir Room on these dates at 8:15AM. An anthem (either very well-known, or something that can be assembled in one short rehearsal) will be rehearsed, and sung at 9:00AM service.

Dates are still open for summer music on the weekends! Contemporaries, soloists, duets, trios, quartets, instrumentalists, visit the Choir Room and sign up for a Sunday (or a Saturday – or both!). Sign up early to reserve your weekend. Seriously, don't make me dig out the lugubrious organ collections.

Come, Holy Spirit!

ment carefully consider the full life-cycle of members and look for ways the church forms faith at every age. They look for gaps, opportunities, and unmet needs to round out their ministries and ask how they can do better. They train lay people to lead small groups, teach Bible studies and coordinate support groups. They realize the power of special topics and interests to attract unchurched people, and they advertise and invite beyond the walls of the church.

Risk-Taking Mission and Service

Matthew 25:14-30

This involves work that stretches people, causing them to do something for the good of others that they would never have considered doing if it were not for their relationship with Christ and their desire to serve him. These churches not only solicit and encourage ordinary service to support the work of the congregation, but they also consciously seek to motivate people to more extraordinary service. They lift examples in preaching and teaching. Risk-taking missions and service is also part of the formation of children and youth. All youth and children ministries include teaching and experiential components that stretch compassion outward beyond the walls of the church. Faith mapped in childhood provides pathways that shape lifelong commitments. As congregations move beyond their comfort zones and follow Christ into more adventurous encounters with people, God's Spirit changes them, changes others and changes churches.

Extravagant Generosity

2 Corinthians 9:6-15

Churches that practice extravagant generosity speak confidently and faithfully about money, giving, generosity and the difference giving makes for the purposes of Christ and in the life of the giver. They emphasize the Christian's need to give for more reasons than just the church's need for money. They emphasize mission, purpose and life-changing results rather than shortages, budgets and institutional loyalty. Pastors express appreciation to people who give by thanking members collectively and personally, and they give God thanks for increased giving. Members are informed in positive and consistent ways about their giving. Pastors and church leadership view "giving beyond the walls" as indispensable to Christian discipleship and to congregational mission and vitality. Churches that grow in giving know that generosity increases with participation in ministry and community, so they work to deepen the core ministries of worship, small group learning and mission. They address the challenge of growing in giving to long-term members as to adults new to the faith. They also teach, model and cultivate generosity among children and youth. The spiritual maturity that comes from growth in giving, and the extraordinary engagement that results from tithing, bring clarity of purpose and greater integrity to all the church's ministries.

These five practices work together in the mission of the church. Take them beyond conversations between pastor and church leaders—take them into the worship services, classes and homes of every church member to imbed them into the fabric of your congregation. By doing so, you will develop a unifying common language that helps people understand the tasks of Christian discipleship. The exemplary and repeated practices of Radical Hospitality, Passionate Worship, Intentional Faith Development, Risk-Taking Mission and Service, and Extravagant Generosity are the time-tested, theologically sound and effective means congregations use to fulfill their mission with excellence and fruitfulness to the glory of God.

Brothers and Sisters In Christ Serving (BASICS) a Mission Agency. This new partner comes to our attention via Judy & Dave DeBruine. Thank you!

BASICS works to bring Good News and Hope by showing and telling the Love of Jesus Christ to the homeless, poor and disenfranchised citizens of our community. Through them we can fulfill our Great Commission Goals during Mission Servant Week by providing Bibles! They have a goal of distributing 1000 Bibles for summer outreaches. Living Proof Live Event Comes to Milwaukee Calvary women have been learning from Beth Moore through her DVD-based Bible studies for years. Now we have the opportunity to learn from her right here in Milwaukee.

On Friday evening, August 14 and Saturday morning, August 15, a Living Proof Live event featuring Beth Moore will be held at the UW-M Panther Arena. There are several Calvary women who will be car-pooling to these sessions.

Even if you've never been able to be part of the women's ministry Bible studies at church, we hope you can come along. You can find all the details at the website <http://www.lifeway.com/Living-Proof-Live/c/N-1z13y3v?type=events>. Registration can be done online.

This is a great opportunity to sit among throngs of Christian women and dig into God's Word, sing His praises, and sit in His Presence!

Let me know if you'd like to carpool:

A Message from Bishop Bradosky

May 12, 2015

Dear friends in Christ,

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ!

This letter accompanies a document [below] with proposed constitutional amendments for the upcoming 2015 NALC Convocation and possible congregational action to ratify following the Convocation.

Should these constitutional amendments be approved by the Convocation, it will then require ratification by 2/3 of NALC congregations voting within six months of the conclusion of the Convocation.

The proposed constitutional amendments are all related to the change in relationship between Lutheran CORE and the NALC. Earlier this year, Lutheran CORE amended its constitution to remove all references to specific Lutheran denominations. Those amendments included removing references to the Joint Commission on Theology and Doctrine, which had been a joint commission for Lutheran CORE and the NALC.

It is appropriate to remove "joint" from the NALC constitution for the following reasons: 1) Lutheran CORE is no longer participating as an organization in the commission; 2) the commission's primary responsibilities have always pertained solely to the NALC; and 3) the NALC is now providing sole support for the commission.

Most of the proposed amendments are simple deletions. The amendments to Article 12.01 propose an amended procedure for appointing members of the commission, which would allow for the appointment of non-NALC members. They could be individual Lutheran CORE members who are members of another Lutheran church. The proposed amendments to Articles 12.02 and 13.02 provide more concise and clear wording.

I am thankful for congregational participation in the ratification process the past few years. It is essential for our life together that congregations are involved in all of the major decisions of the NALC. Again this year your congregation will have two opportunities for making a major decision - through your congregational delegates at the Convocation and through your congregational vote on ratification should the Convocation approve the proposed amendments.

I give thanks to God for our partnership in the Gospel, and for our shared discipleship within the North American Lutheran Church!

In Christ's service,

Bishop John F. Bradosky

Proposed Amendments for 2015 Convocation

9.09 The Executive Council is empowered to suspend the Bishop by a three-quarters vote of all members, excluding the Bishop, for cause, as outlined in the provisions for discipline in Section 14.01, in consultation with the Court of Adjudication and the Joint Commission on Theology and Doctrine. The Executive Council will appoint an interim Bishop to exercise the office until the next annual Convocation. The next annual Convocation may subsequently remove the suspended Bishop by a two-thirds vote and set in motion a process for the election of a successor according to Article 8. In case of death or disability precluding the exercise of the office, the Executive Council may appoint an interim Bishop to serve until the next annual Convocation.

10.06 The Executive Council is empowered to suspend any member of the Executive Council by a three-quarters vote of all members for cause, in consultation with the Court of Adjudication and the ~~Joint~~ Commission on Theology and Doctrine. The Executive Council may appoint an interim replacement until the next annual Convocation. The Executive Council is empowered to suspend or remove any other elected officer by a three-quarters vote of all members.

12.01 The Bishop, with the consent of the Executive Council, shall appoint the ~~NALC~~ members of the ~~Joint~~ Commission on Theology and Doctrine, ~~a commission formed jointly by the NALC and Lutheran CORE. At least two-thirds of the commission members shall be theologians who are members of a congregation of the NALC. Lutheran theologians who are not members of a congregation of the NALC may be appointed provided that they agree to honor and observe the NALC's Confession of Faith and practice in their work with the NALC. The Bishop, with the consent of the Executive Council, shall be empowered to define terms of office for the commission, to remove members of the commission, and to fill vacancies on the commission as vacancies arise.~~ The Bishop shall be an ex officio member.

12.02 The ~~Joint~~ Commission on Theology and Doctrine shall consider topics of a theological nature, implement theological conferences as may be appropriate, draft statements of a theological nature, and may recommend the adoption of statements by the appropriate bodies of the NALC and ~~Lutheran CORE~~. Additionally, the ~~Joint~~ Commission on Theology and Doctrine ~~shall will~~ provide guidance to the NALC and Lutheran CORE on ecumenical matters and oversight and coordination for the interLutheran and ecumenical ministry of the NALC, working together with the NALC executive staff. The Commission will also provide educational and other resources that will interpret the ministries of the NALC and Lutheran CORE.

~~13.02 A task force or committee, appointed by the Executive Council in consultation with the Joint Committee on Theology and Doctrine, shall provide oversight and coordination for the inter-Lutheran and ecumenical ministry of the NALC.~~

15.03 The Court shall have jurisdiction to decide (a) appeals from disciplinary decisions; (b) questions regarding interpretation of the NALC's governing documents put to the Court by a Convocation, the Executive Council, or a regional entity of the NALC; and (c) claims that any person, body, or entity has violated the governing documents of the NALC either through action or inaction, provided that such a claim may be brought only by a person affected directly by the challenged action or inaction. If the Court must answer a theological question to decide a matter, the Court shall refer the question to the ~~Joint~~ Commission on Theology and Doctrine. The Court shall be obligated to accept the guidance of the ~~Joint~~ Commission on Theology and Doctrine.

Useful Apps

More and more, we rely on our smart phones and tablets to keep our calendars and remind us of daily, weekly and monthly tasks. In our ever-busy lives, we often find ourselves needing reminders to walk with God - to pray, worship, read & study the Word, and spend time in devotions. How wonderful it is then, that there are numerous apps to help us! Search online or in an app store for "Bible", "Prayer", or "Christian devotions" and you will discover a wealth of useful apps (or applications for those of us not quite so tech-savvy).

Here are just a few useful apps available:

- Pray Now Daily prayer app from Concordia Publishing.

Google Play for Android: <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.praynow>
- Bible.is A great way to read, listen to, and share the Bible with friends and family around the world:

Google Play for Android: <https://play.google.com/store/apps/details?id=com.faithcomesbyhearing.android.bibleis>
- Calvary Lutheran Church Our church app where you can hear sermons, read Micro-Epistles and more!
